Weidman,Linda B. Martin,1981-01-01 175 vintage photos recall aspects of life on Long Island from post Civil War to modern era Village life agriculture local industries celebrities early aviation and movie industries fabulous estates beaches much more Unique document of early Nassau and pioneer photography Full informative captions Introduction Indices Picasso's Paintings, Watercolors, Drawings and Sculpture: Europe at War 1939-1940 ,1998 Art, Propaganda and Aerial Warfare in Britain during the Second World War Rebecca Searle,2020-07-23 The War Artists Advisory Committee WAAC were responsible for the production of some of the most iconic images of the Second World War Despite its rich historical value this collection has been poorly utilised by historians and hasn't been subjected to the levels of analysis afforded to other forms of wartime culture This innovative study addresses this gap by bringing official war art into dialogue with the social economic and military histories of the Second World War Rebecca Searle explores the tensions between the documentarist and propagandistic roles of the WAAC in their representation of aerial warfare in the battle for production the Battle of Britain the Blitz and the bombing of Germany Her analyses demonstrate that whilst there was a strong correlation between war art and propaganda the WAAC depicted many aspects of experience that were absent from wartime propaganda such as class divisions within the services gendered hierarchies within industries civilian death and the true nature of the bombing of Germany In addition she shows that propagandistic constructions were not entirely separate from lived experience but reflected experience and shaped the way that individuals made sense of the war Accessibly written highly illustrated and packed with valuable examples of the use of war art as historical source this book will enhance our understanding of the social and cultural history of Britain during the Second World War Someone's Gonna End Up Crying Jo Knowles,2025-05-27 In this authentic and heartfelt middle grade novel Maple uses her artwork to help sort through sibling relationships school drama and her parents increasingly fraught marriage Ten year old Maple can't wait for summer No more math Adventures with her friends Best of all she and Dad are finally going to build a real treehouse Or are they Lately Dad has been quick to storm off when he argues with Mom which happens more and more Maple seeks refuge in her sketchbook filling it with comics and other drawings and posing the questions she can't bring herself to ask anywhere else She imagines Dadlandia a place that Dad whooshes off to when he's gone Maple confides in her favorite tree her namesake that she wishes Dad would come home for good But eventually Maple will need to step outside her imagination and confront what's happening for real For that she will need support from friends and family and strength and courage from within Celebrated author Jo Knowles delivers complex characters and emotions with care while illustrator Glynnis Fawkes's powerful illustrations perfectly capture Maple's creative spirit her struggles and her capacity for hope The Antonio II Badile Album of Drawings: The Origins of Collecting Drawings in Early Modern

Northern Italy Evelyn Karet, 2017-07-05 Evelyn Karet's in depth study of the Antonio II Badile Album the earliest known example of an art collection pasted onto the pages of a book is both focused and broad in its appeal to those interested in the early modern era The provenance of the album is traced from its assemblage to the seventeenth century collection of Conte Lodovico Moscardo to its dismantling by the dealer Francis Matthiesen in the 1950s establishing that the volume conserved in the Frits Lugt Collection is not an original but a replica produced by Matthiesen Although Antonio II must be celebrated as the collector of the drawings new paleographic analysis has identified the actual compiler of the album after Antonio's death providing a terminus post quem in the late 1530s or early 1540s Karet enlarges the focus from the album itself to the historic tradition of collecting drawings in northern Italy in the early modern era before Vasari for which the album provides a new point of reference Throughout the book Karet discusses the Badile family examines the individual drawings in the book investigates the contacts between artists and humanists their rich diverse collections and the humanist mind set that fostered the appreciation of drawings She explores notable early drawing collections in northern Italy and the role of northern Italy as a center of collection in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries The book concludes with two appendices a reconstruction of the original album including a discussion of the reconstruction process suggestions about what the album originally looked like and a page by page guide to its contents and a detailed analysis of Francis Matthiesen's career This book opens up new areas of inquiry into an overlooked subject The Creative Process in Music from Mozart to Kurtag William

Kinderman, 2012-10-18 In this intriguing study William Kinderman opens the door to the composer's workshop investigating not just the final outcome but the process of creative endeavour in music Focusing on the stages of composition Kinderman maintains that the most rigorous basis for the study of artistic creativity comes not from anecdotal or autobiographical reports but from original handwritten sketches drafts revised manuscripts and corrected proof sheets He explores works of major composers from the eighteenth century to the present from Mozart's piano music and Beethoven's Piano Trio in F to Kurtag's Kafka Fragments and Hommage a R Sch Other chapters examine Robert Schumann's Fantasie in C Mahler's Fifth Symphony and Bartok's Dance Suite Revealing the diversity of sources rejected passages and movements fragmentary unfinished works and aborted projects that were absorbed into finished compositions The Creative Process in Music from Mozart to Kurtag illustrates the wealth of insight that can be gained through studying the creative process Blackwells

Life, Times and Work of William Gillies, 1898-1973 Andrew McPherson, 2024-11-30 For seventy years William Gillies has been seen as a placid painter of landscape and decorative still life Andrew McPherson explodes this view to reveal a modernist whose response to the instabilities and violence of modernity touched universals of human experience Gillies' idiom was shaped by institutions for artistic production unique to Scotland But it was the politics of Scotland's connections to the rest of the British Isles that produced his mythic and misleading reputation New paintings and new meanings are uncovered placing the micro effects of modernity on mental health family and community in the wider contexts of war nationalism and public patronage McPherson also shows how this changing world led Gillies towards new applications of modernist expression Lavishly illustrated and referencing almost one thousand works this major reappraisal is an indispensable source on the cultural politics of a four nation state and the reception of modernism in Britain Mural Painting in Britain 1840-1940 Clare A. P. Willisdon, 2000 This survey sets state civic commercial church private and other murals in their historical and cultural contexts The book covers work by over 400 artists and numerous murals never previously documented or illustrated American Drawings and Watercolors in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Kevin J. Avery, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2002 The Metropolitan Museum began acquiring American drawings and watercolors in 1880 just ten years after its founding Since then it has amassed more than 1 500 works executed by American artists during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries in watercolor pastel chalk ink graphite gouache and charcoal This volume documents the draftsmanship of more than 150 known artists before 1835 and that of about 60 unidentified artists of the period It includes drawings and watercolors by such American masters as John Singleton Copley John Trumbull John Vanderlyn Thomas Cole Asher Brown Durand George Inness and James Abbott McNeill Whistler Because the 504 works illustrate such a wide range of media techniques and styles this publication is a veritable history of American drawing from the eighteenth through most of the nineteenth century Metropolitan Museum of Art website
