In the Hills Theodore Marburg, 1924 Religion, Death, and Dying Lucy Bregman, 2009-11-25 A wide ranging anthology for general readers covering many religious ethical and spiritual aspects of death dying and bereavement in American society What do various spiritual and ethical belief systems have to say about modern medicine s approach to the end of life Do all major religions characterize the afterlife in similar ways How do funeral rites and rituals vary across different faiths Now there is one resource that gathers leading scholars to address these questions and more about the many religious ethical and spiritual aspects of death dying and bereavement in America Religion Death and Dying compares and contrasts the ways different faiths and ethical schools contemplate the end of life The work is organized into three thematic volumes first an examination of the contemporary medicalized death from the perspective of different religious traditions and the professions involved second an exploration of complex often controversial issues including the death of children AIDS capital punishment and war and finally a survey of the funeral and bereavement rituals that have evolved under various religions Musings of an Old Warrior , The Female Poets of America ... Robert Kemp Philp,1865 Trial of Intentions Peter Orullian,2025-08-22 The second title in the Vault of Heaven series Peter Orullian s Trial of Intentions is a mesmerizing fantasy epic that turns the conventions of the genre on its head The gods who created this world have abandoned it In their mercy however they chained the rogue god and the monstrous creatures he created to plague mortalkind in the vast and inhospitable wasteland of the Bourne The magical Veil that contains them has protected humankind for millennia and the monsters are little more than tales told to frighten children But the Veil has become weak and creatures of Nightmare have come through To fight them the races of men must form a great alliance to try and stop the creatures But there is dissent One king won t answer the call his pride blinding him even to the poison in his own court Another would see Convocation fail for his own political advantage And still others believe Convocation is not enough Some turn to the talents of the Sheason who can shape the very essence of the world to their will But their order is divided on the brink of collapse Tahn Junell remembers friends who despaired in a place left barren by war One of the few who have actually faced the unspeakable horde in battle Tahn sees something else at work and wonders about the nature of the creatures on the other side of the Veil He chooses to go to a place of his youth a place of science daring to think he can find a way to prevent slaughter prevent war And his choices may reshape a world At the Publisher s request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied Fighting Words Devotional Ellie Holcomb,2021-10-15 Whether it s a dream that isn t coming true a stretch of the journey that feels especially dark or just the basic busy and tired each of us braves in the crazy chaos of the ordinary have you ever faced a season where life to the full feels just out of reach light seems like it it s just over the horizon or lies seem to crowd out the truth If you re anything like Ellie Holcomb the answer is yes For her in these seasons God s Word has been a shelter a comfort a song a balm and an anchor Ultimately it s been a light that has helped kick back at the darkness of the lies we so often believe In her debut devotional Fighting Words you are invited to come alongside Ellie as you ponder the power of God s promises together and speak them into the darkest corners of your soul Filled with encouraging and honest reflections beautifully designed Scripture memory pages and wonderful questions to help you process Fighting Words is a place where you can wrestle respond to and take hold of precious truths in God's Word to help you push back the lies that so often consume, distract and destroy us. God's Word is alive. In this devotional, Ellie invites you to steep your soul in the living Word, take hold of it, wrestle with it, bury it in your heart and watch as it brings about life and flourishing. The book is the last in a series written by this author which depicts the adventures of an extended family of fur trappers as they struggle to survive in the Yukon Territory. Samuel, an adventurer from Seattle who moved to Dawson City to open a business selling products such as woodstoves, axes, ironware for cooking and dog sled runners, managed to earn a profit in his first year of operation. Looking to increase his income, he opens a fur brokerage business in a small building constructed behind his ironware store. Samuel's close relationship with the patriarchal couple of the family provides him with a glimpse of what true survival entails as he becomes acquainted with the members of this close network of friends and relatives. The Ironware Store depicts daily life in the Yukon and the struggle to exist in a harsh but stunning environment. Discover what chilling event drastically changes the lives of the men and women who have made the wilds near Dawson their home, an ending no one was expecting.

Mirror Worlds David Gelernter, 1993-01-28 Technology doesn't flow smoothly; it's the big surprises that matter. And Yale computer expert David Gelernter sees one such giant leap right on the horizon. Today's small-scale software programs are about to be joined by vast public software works that will revolutionize computing and transform society as a whole. One such vast program is the Mirror World. Imagine looking at your computer screen and seeing reality: an image of your city, for instance, complete with moving traffic patterns or a picture that sketches the state of an entire far-flung corporation. At this second, these representations are called Mirror Worlds, and according to Gelernter, they will soon be available to everyone. Mirror Worlds are high-tech voodoo dolls; by interacting with the images you interact with reality. Indeed, Mirror Worlds will revolutionize the use of computers, transforming them from mere handy tools to crystal balls which will allow us to see the world more vividly and see into it more deeply. Reality will be replaced gradually, piece by piece, by a software imitation we will live inside the imitation and the surprising thing is this will be a great humanistic advance We gain control over our world plus a huge new measure of insight and vision In this fascinating book part speculation part explanation Gelernter takes us on a tour of the computer technology of the near future Mirror Worlds he contends will allow us to explore the world in unprecedented depth and detail without ever changing out of our pajamas A hospital administrator might wander through an entire medical complex via a desktop computer Any citizen might explore the performance of the local schools chat electronically with teachers and other Mirror World visitors plant software agents to report back on interesting topics decide to run for the local school board hire a campaign manager and conduct the better part of the campaign itself all by interacting with the Mirror World Gelernter doesn't just speculate about how this amazing new software will be used he shows us how it will be made explaining carefully and in detail how to build a Mirror World using technology already available We learn about disembodied machines trellises ensembles and other computer components which sound obscure but which Gelernter explains using familiar metaphors and terms He tells us that a Mirror World is a microcosm just like a Japanese garden or a Gothic cathedral and that a computer program is translated by the computer in the same way a symphony is translated by a violinist into music Mirror Worlds offers a lucid and humanistic account of the coming software revolution told by a computer scientist at the cutting edge of his field
