Grindhouse Austin Fisher,Johnny Walker,2016-09-22 The pervasive image of New York s 42nd Street as a hub of sensational thrills vice and excess is from where grindhouse cinema the focus of this volume stemmed It is arguably an image that has remained unchanged in the mind s eye of many exploitation film fans and academics alike Whether in the pages of fanzines or scholarly works it is often recounted how should one have walked down this street between the 1960s and the 1980s one would have undergone a kaleidoscopic encounter with an array of disparate exploitation films from all over the world that were being offered cheaply to urbanites by a swathe of vibrant movie theatres The contributors to Grindhouse Cultural Exchange on 42nd Street and Beyond consider grindhouse cinema from a variety of cultural and methodological positions Some seek to deconstruct the etymology of grindhouse itself add flesh to the bones of its cadaverous history or examine the term s contemporary relevance in the context of both media production and consumerism Others offer new inroads into hitherto unexamined examples of exploitation film history presenting snapshots of cultural moments that many of us thought we already knew

Cinema Inferno Robert G. Weiner,John Cline,2010-07-17 Cinema Inferno Celluloid Explosions from the Cultural Margins addresses significant areas and eras of transgressive filmmaking including many subgenres and styles that have not yet received much critical attention This collection of essays covers both contemporary films and those produced in the last 50 years to provide a theoretical framework for looking at transgressive cinema and what that means This volume begins with a number of essays that examine the aesthetic of realism tracing it through the late Italian Neo Realism of Pasolini the early films of Melvin Van Peebles and Canadian filmmaker Guy Maddin Another section focuses on 70s Italian horror and thrillers including a substantially different examination of filmmaker Dario Argento as well as essays on critically underrepresented directors Lucio Fulci and Sergio Martino A section on New York looks at both radical independents like Troma and Andy Milligan as well as the social context from which a view of the metropolis in decay emerged Sections also cover the experimental work of the Vienna Action Group and controversial filmmaker Michael Haneke as well as films and genres too idiosyncratic and disturbing to fit anywhere else including analyses of Nazi propaganda films fundamentalist Christian scare movies and postwar Japanese youth films The final essays try to come to terms with a mainstream flirtation with transgressive film and Grindhouse aesthetics
