life and he cannot will not stifle his longings to learn of that higher plane As this knowledge is not forbidden fruit provided he comply with the conditions necessary to obtain it it sometimes happens that some spirit that has climbed far up the heights of life in the spirit world returns Such a spirit was Ahrinziman whose life is told by himself in this book Its hero was a Persian prince and for a brief period ruler of his nation Then 2 300 years ago he fell by the swords of the soldiers of another claimant of the throne From his father Artaxerxes Longimanus he had inherited the kingly stature the imperious powerful will and alas the royal vices and passions From his mother a Greek slave he inherited rare spiritual gifts especially clairvoyance and the power of leaving his body and journeying into the astral world From her he also inherited a germ of true nobility of character the sprang into life blossomed and bore rich fruit centuries after he awoke to life on the astral plane His life as he recounts its chapters shows as vividly as words can show how we live not for time but eternity How if our deeds have been evil if we have lived only for selfish purposes if we have strove only for our own happiness regardless of others if we have wrecked the lives and happiness of others in order to bring a few brief moments of imagined joy to our own we have but accumulated a debt that we must pay to the uttermost farthing before one gleam of sunshine can reach us in the life beyond The Works of Thackeray: Lovel the widower and other stories and sketches William Makepeace Thackeray, 1911 The KGB Bar Reader Ken Foster, 1998 The KGB Bar Reading Series originally conceived as a small weekly literary event in a funky bar in New York City s East Village has grown into a showcase for lively writing that draws a response and is quickly earning national recognition Now fiction and nonfiction selections from the series are gathered together in this unique anthology
