The Phoenix Mosque and the Persians of Medieval Hangzhou George A. Lane, 2019-02-15 In the early 1250s M ngke Khan grandson and successor of the mighty Mongol emperor Genghis Khan sent out his younger brothers Qubilai and Hulegu to consolidate his power Hulegu was welcomed into Iran while his older brother Qubilai continued to erode the power of the Song emperors of southern China In 1276 he finally forced their submission and peacefully occupied the Song capital Hangzhou The city enjoyed a revival as the cultural capital of a united China and was soon filled with traders adventurers artists entrepreneurs and artisans from throughout the great Mongol Empire including a prosperous influential and seemingly welcome community of Persians In 1281 one of the Persian settlers Ala al Din built the Phoenix Mosque in the heart of the city where it still stands today This study of the mosque and the Ju jing Yuan cemetery which today is a lake side public park casts light on an important and transformative period in Chinese history and perhaps the most important period in Chinese Islamic history The book is published in the Persian Studies Series of the British Institute of Persian Studies BIPS edited by Charles Melville Anahita Manya Saadi-nejad, 2021-01-14 Anahita was the most important goddess of pre Islamic

Iran From her roots as an ancient Indo European water deity her status was unrivalled by any other Iranian goddess throughout the course of three successive Iranian empires over a period of a thousand years The first scholarly book on Anahita this study reconstructs the Indo European water goddess through a comparison of Celtic Slavic Armenian and Indo Iranian myths and rituals Anahita s constantly evolving description and functions are then traced through the written and iconographic records of Iranian societies from the Achaemenid period onwards including but not limited to the Zoroastrian texts and the inscriptions and artistic representations of the great pre Islamic Iranian empires The study concludes by tracing survival of the goddess in Islamic Iran as seen in new Persian literature and popular rituals Manya Saadi nejad demonstrates the close relationship between Iranian mythology and that of other Indo European peoples and the significant cultural continuities from Iran s pre Islamic period into the Islamic present Hosay Trinidad Frank J. Korom,2012-05-26

The multivocalic rite known as Hosay in the Caribbean developed out of earlier practices originating in Iraq and Iran which diffused to Trinidad by way of South Asian indentured laborers brought to the Caribbean by the British from the mid 1800s to the early decades of the twentieth century The rituals are important as a Shi i religious observance but they also are emblems of ethnic and national identity for Indo Trinidadians Frank Korom investigates the essential role of Hosay in the performance of multiple identities by historically and ethnographically situating the event in Middle Eastern South Asian and Caribbean contexts Hosay Trinidad Muharram Performances in an Indo Caribbean Diaspora is the first detailed historical and ethnographic study of Islamic muharram rituals performed on the island of Trinidad Korom s central argument is that the annual rite is a polyphonic discourse that is best understood by employing multiple levels of interpretation On the symbolic level the observance provides esoteric meaning to a small community of Indo Trinidadian Muslims On another level it is perceived to be representative of transplanted Indian culture as a whole Finally the rituals are becoming emblematic of Trinidad s polyethnic population Addressing strategies used to resist integration and assimilation Hosay Trinidad is engaged with theories concerning the notion of cultural creolization in the Caribbean as well as in the general study of global diasporas Sasanian Persia Eberhard W. Sauer,2017-06-05 Details Persias growing military and economic power in the late antique worldThe Sasanian Empire 3rd7th centuries was one of the largest empires of antiquity stretching from Mesopotamia to modern Pakistan and from Central Asia to the Arabian Peninsula This mega empire withstood powerful opponents in the steppe and expanded further in Late Antiquity whilst the Roman world shrunk in size Recent research has revealed the reasons for this success notably population growth in some key territories economic prosperity and urban development made possible through investment in agriculture and military infrastructure on a scale unparalleled in the late antique world Our volume explores the empires relations with its neighbours and key phenomena which contributed to its wealth and power from the empires armed forces to agriculture trade and treatment of minorities The latest discoveries notably major urban foundations fortifications and irrigations systems feature prominently An empire whose military might and culture rivalled Rome and foreshadowed the caliphate will be of interest to scholars of the Roman and Islamic world Challenges our Eurocentric world view by presenting a Near Eastern empire whose urban culture and military apparatus rivalled that of Rome Covers the latest discoveries on foundations fortifications and irrigation systems Includes case studies on Sasanian frontier walls and urban culture in the Sasanian Empire Studies in Honour of Clifford Edmund Bosworth, Volume II Carole Hillenbrand, 2021-11-08 Professor C E Bosworth FBA is a Middle East historian of world stature In this volume his friends and colleagues come together to honour his 70th birthday This book ranges widely over time and space but its core is the Islamic culture of Iran and Turkey The contributors cover topics from the Arab conquest in the seventh century to Turkish and Iranian nationalism in the twentieth century Special attention is paid to medieval Turco Persian history an area which lies at the heart of Professor Bosworth's oeuvre more than half of the articles fall into this category Moreover five of them focus on that early medieval eastern Iranian world on which he has written so widely While the emphasis lies squarely on history other fields such as religion literature music art and numismatics are also represented Thus the volume offers a conspectus of the cultural contribution of Iran and Turkey to Islamic civilisation The Silk Road and Cultural Exchanges between East and West Xinjiang Rong, 2022-10-31 This first and only English translation of Rong Xinjiang's The Silk Road and Cultural Exchanges Between East and West is a collection of 28 papers on the history of the Silk Road and the interactions among the peoples and cultures of East and Central Asia including the so called Western Regions in modern day Xinjiang Each paper is a masterly study that combines information obtained from historical records with excavated materials such as manuscripts inscriptions and artefacts The new materials primarily come from north western China including sites in the regions of Dunhuang Turfan Kucha and Khotan The book contains a wealth of original insights into nearly every aspect of the complex history of this region The History and Culture of Iran and Central Asia D.
