NOTES ON GROSSINGER'S SOLAR JOURNAL: OECOLOGICAL SECTIONS

Robert Duncan

The O.E.D.'s earliest entry for the word Oecology is from Haeckel's History of Creation, translated from the German in 1873. The word had come in the wake of Darwin's The Origin of Species, which had appeared in 1859, where in the chapter on Natural Selection we find the crux of the matter: "[Man] can neither originate varieties nor prevent their occurrence; he can preserve and accumulate such as do occur. Unintentionally he exposes organic beings to new and changing conditions of life, and variability ensues; but similar changes of conditions might and do occur under nature. Let it also be borne in mind how infinitely complex and close-fitting are the mutual relations of all organic beings to each other and to their physical conditions of life, and consequently what infinitely various diversities of structure might be of use to each being under changing conditions of life." Darwin is speaking of the evolution of species (biological forms), but he speaks too for us today of the origin of species of aesthetic forms. Far from a denial of Creation, Darwin's vision enlarged the depth and field of our apprehension of the nature of creation. Those of us today who read him seriously have been exposed to new and changing conditions of the meaning of form, reviving, renewing and changing the light in which we see the content of old ways of thought.

The fabric of Being in Darwin's poetic vision arose in the weaving of sexual selection—the falling in love and loving—and of natural selection—the alchemical process within the field of the Universe in which we, as thematic forms, either

Ideogram Laszlo K. Géfin, 2014-07-03 The ideogram changed the course of modern American poetry and Ideogram is the first history of this important poetic tradition In modern poetry the ideogram is an idea presented to the reader by means of the juxtaposition of concrete particulars usually without connective words or phrases The poem is therefore presented in precise images usually very tersely and free from conventional form and meter The idea of presenting a concept in this manner derives in part from Ernest Fenollosa s essay The Chinese Character as a Medium for Poetry the Chinese written character itself being a juxtaposition of pictographs to form a new meaning Ezra Pound s search for an alternative to traditional forms of verse composition resulted in his use of the ideogrammic method which Laszlo K G fin asserts became the major mode of presentation in twentieth century American poetry Two generations of avant garde experimental poets since Pound have turned to it for inspiration evolving their own methods from its principles G fin begins by tracing the development of Pound s poetics from the pre Imagist stage through Imagism and Vorticism to the formulation of the ideogrammic method He then examines the Objectivist poetics of Louis Zukofsky Charles Reznikoff and George Oppen the contributions to the ideogrammic tradition of William Carlos Williams and the Projectivist theories of Charles Olson Robert Duncan and Robert Creeley He concludes with an exploration of Allen Ginsberg s theory of the ellipse and Gary Snyder s riprap method Throughout G fin maintains that the ideogrammic mode is the literary representation of the twentieth century post logical even post humanist world view

Dark Pool of Light 3 Volume Set Richard Grossinger, 2012-12-18 In books like Embyogenesis and Embryos Galaxies and Sentient Beings author Richard Grossinger brought together the subjects of biological embryology and the esoteric process of human consciousness becoming embodied The embryo is the universe writing itself on its own body In Dark Pool of Light his latest creation Grossinger weaves neuroscience based behaviorism and the phenomenology of being and reality together with psychological and psychospiritual views of that single thing which is most difficult to understand or vindicate our own existence In 2008 Grossinger began studying with noted psychic teacher John Friedlander who helped him refine his vision of cerebral and somatic awareness to still subtler levels Dark Pool of Light began unnamed in the journals of my psychic work with John Friedlander says Grossinger not so much a record of actual practices as insights from them and extensions out of them An expansive inquiry into the nature of consciousness the series examines the tension between the scientific and philosophical and psychic views of the same phenomena and includes field notes and experiential exercises that invite the reader to make their own explorations Dark Pool of Light is divided into three volumes in Volume 1 Grossinger begins with the scientific and philosophical analytical views of reality exploring the science parascience philosophy and psychology of consciousness Covering topics as diverse as current discoveries in neuroscience and the philosophy of the ancient Greeks the book gives a broad overview of the bodies of knowledge concerning the nature of reality and consciousness Volume Two discusses the similarities and differences between European esoteric traditions and Buddhism in their approaches to the subjects and gives a detailed description of the psychic training Grossinger undertook that informs much of his worldview This expansive inquiry into the nature of consciousness ends with this third volume in the series The Crisis and Future of Consciousness Grossinger addresses the perennial question of evil and shares the author's hopes and fears for the future of humanity While wisdom gleaned from such seemingly disparate sources as science philosophy religion and spirituality might appear very very different things Grossinger nevertheless finds their meeting place in subjective lived experience

The Fire Robin Blaser, 2006-09-29 Spanning four decades of meditation on the avant garde in poetry art and philosophy the essays collected in The Fire reveal Robin Blaser's strikingly fresh perspective on New American poets deconstructive philosophies current events and the state of humanities now The essays gathered in one volume for the first time include commentaries on Jack Spicer Charles Olson Robert Duncan Mary Butts George Bowering Louis Dudek Christos Dikeakos and J S Bach Blaser emerged from the Berkeley Renaissance of the 1940s and 1950s having studied under legendary medieval scholar Ernst Kantorowicz and having been a major participant in the burgeoning literary scene His response to the cultural and political events of his time has been to construct a poetic voice that offers a singular perspective on a shareable world and to pose that voice alongside others as a source of countermemory and potential agency Conceived as conversations these essays brilliantly reflect that ethos as they re read the cultural events of the past fifty years
