Morad, 2010 His journey began in Iran where he was born and learned the ways of an ancient civilization As you travel with him you will learn about his childhood his parents his teenage years and his years as a medical student in Iran Arriving in a new country where people's beliefs and customs were so unlike his own he discovered that if you are sincere in your beliefs no matter how different they may be most people will respect you and your right to your beliefs Soon he had two countries and fond memories of his youth in his native land and a deep gratitude for a country that has given him the opportunity to develop wonderful friendships He has also learned that people are more alike than they are different and that everyone has a belief of some kind and that they want to be cared about and respected Having the perspective of a native Iranian and a patriotic American he provides a view of his heritage as well as the continuing story of his life here in the United States He was a surgeon who placed a higher value on being a humane caring person rather than power or money He has viewed his patients and co workers as family and treated them with enduring love and respect Without exception they have reciprocated As a physician he knows laughter and hope is effective medicine and he has supplied large doses of these in his stories It is his desire that they give you enjoyment as well as a more in depth perception of a different culture and of the man who came from that culture This is his small contribution to helping us all learn how to live in peace and harmony with one another International Journal of Surgery and Antiseptics ... , 1919 A Treatise on the Law of the Farm Henry Hall Dixon, 1858 Index-catalogue of the Library of the Surgeon-General's Office, United States Army Library of the Surgeon-General's Office (U.S.), 1897 Public Health Reports , 1916 The Surgeon's Stories Zacharias Topelius, 1883 Everything for Sale Robert
