Soldiers Airmen Spies Whisperers:

Soldiers, Airmen, Spies, and Whisperers Nancy Ellen Lawler, 2002 The Gold Coast became important to the Allied war effort in WWII necessitating the creation of elaborate propaganda and espionage networks the activities of which ranged from rumor mongering to smuggling and sabotage

Spies in the Congo Susan Williams, 2018 Spies in the Congo is the untold story of one of the most tightly guarded secrets of the Second World War America's desperate struggle to secure enough uranium to build its atomic bomb The Shinkolobwe mine in the Belgian Congo was the most important deposit of uranium yet discovered anywhere on earth vital to the success of the Manhattan Project Given that Germany was also working on an atomic bomb it was an urgent priority for the US to prevent uranium from the Congo being diverted to the enemy a task entrusted to Washington's elite secret intelligence agents Sent undercover to colonial Africa to track the ore and to hunt Nazi collaborators their assignment was made even tougher by the complex political reality and by tensions with Belgian and British officials A gripping spy thriller Spies in the Congo is the true story of unsung heroism of the handful of good men and one woman in Africa who were determined to deny Hitler his bomb

Ghana Jeffrey Ahlman, 2023-10-05 Few African countries have attracted the international attention that Ghana has In the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the then colonial Gold Coast emerged as a key political and intellectual hub for British West Africa Half a century later when Ghana became the first sub Saharan state to emerge from European colonial rule it became a key site for a burgeoning transnational African anticolonial politics that drew activists freedom fighters and intellectuals from around the world As the twentieth century came to a close Ghana also became an international symbol of the putative successes of post Cold War African liberalization and democratization projects Here Jeffrey Ahlman narrates this rich political history stretching from the beginnings of the very idea of the Gold Coast to the country's 1992 democratization which paved the way for the Fourth Republic At the same time he offers a rich social history stretching that examines the sometimes overlapping sometimes divergent nature of what it means to be Ghanaian through discussions of marriage ethnicity and migration of cocoa as a cultural system of the multiple meanings of chieftaincy and of other contemporary markers of identity Throughout it all Ahlman distills decades of work by other scholars while also drawing on a wide array of archival oral journalistic and governmental sources in order to provide his own fresh insights For its clear comprehensive coverage not only of Ghanaian history but also of the major debates shaping nineteenth and twentieth century African politics and society more broadly Ghana A Political and Social History is a must read for students and scholars of African Studies

The Great Upheaval Judith A. Byfield, 2021-07-09 This social and intellectual history of women's political activism in postwar Nigeria reveals the importance of gender to the study of nationalism and poses new questions about Nigeria's colonial past and independent future In the years following World War II the women of Abeokuta Nigeria staged a successful tax revolt that led to the formation first of the Abeokuta Women's Union and then of Nigeria's first national women's organization the Nigerian

Women's Union in 1949 These organizations became central to a new political vision a way for women across Nigeria to define their interests desires and needs while fulfilling the obligations and responsibilities of citizenship In The Great Upheaval Judith A Byfield has crafted a finely textured social and intellectual history of gender and nation making that not only tells a story of women's postwar activism but also grounds it in a nuanced account of the complex tax system that generated the upheaval Byfield captures the dynamism of women's political engagement in Nigeria's postwar period and illuminates the centrality of gender to the study of nationalism She thus offers new lines of inquiry into the late colonial era and its consequences for the future Nigerian state Ultimately she challenges readers to problematize the collapse of her female subjects' greatest aspiration universal franchise when the country achieved independence in 1960 Anthropological Intelligence David H. Price, 2008-06-09 Cultural history of anthropologists' involvement with U.S. intelligence agencies as spies and informants during World War II

The Apapa Six: West Africa from a 60s Perspective John Berryman, 2021-03-25 Here is a juxtaposition of the personal and intercommunal dynamics focussed on the West African experience during the pivotal decade of the 1960s when National Independence demanded a reflexion on the definition of the new states and how external factors have borne heavily upon their past present and future The author blends his experience of study and travel in the region acknowledging his debt to the pioneering spirit of the School of Oriental and African Studies who facilitated the enterprise with an analysis of the challenges the new entities have faced and how they have fared nationally and globally in the light of Slavery Colonialism and Black Lives Matter

Oiling the Urban Economy Franklin Obeng-Odoom, 2014-06-13 This book presents a critical analysis of the resource curse doctrine and a review of the international evidence on oil and urban development to examine the role of oil on property development and rights in West Africa's new oil metropolis Sekondi Takoradi Ghana It seeks answers to the following questions In what ways did the city come into existence What changes to property rights are oil prospecting explorations and production introducing in the 21st century How do the effects vary across different social classes and spectrums To what extent are local and national institutions able to shape restrain and constrain transnational oil related accumulation and its effects on property in land property in housing residential leisure and commercial and property in labour How do these processes connect with the entire urban system in Ghana This book shows how institutions of varying degrees of power interact to govern land housing and labour in the city and analyses how efficient sustainable and equitable the outcomes of these interactions are It is a comprehensive account of the tensions and contradictions in the main sectors of the urban economy society and environment in the booming Oil City and will be of interest to urban economists development economists real estate economists Africanists and urbanists

Africans and the Holocaust Edward Kissi, 2019-08-22 This book is an original and comparative study of reactions in West and East Africa to the persecution and attempted annihilation of Jews in Europe and in former German colonies in sub-Saharan Africa during the Second World War An intellectual and diplomatic history of

World War II and the Holocaust Africans and the Holocaust looks at the period from the perspectives of the colonized subjects of the Gold Coast Nigeria Sierra Leone Kenya Tanganyika and Uganda as well as the sovereign peoples of Liberia and Ethiopia who wrestled with the social and moral questions that the war and the Holocaust raised The five main chapters of the book explore the pre Holocaust history of relations between Jews and Africans in West and East Africa perceptions of Nazism in both regions opinions of World War II interpretations of the Holocaust and responses of the colonized and sovereign peoples of West and East Africa to efforts by Great Britain to resettle certain categories of Jewish refugees from Europe in the two regions before and during the Holocaust This book will be of use to students and scholars of African history Holocaust and Jewish studies and international or global history Making Men in Ghana Stephan Miescher,2005-11-24 By featuring the life histories of eight senior men Making Men in Ghana explores the changing meaning of becoming a man in modern Africa Stephan F Miescher concentrates on the ideals and expectations that formed around men who were prominent in their communities when Ghana became an independent nation Miescher shows how they negotiated complex social and economic transformations and how they dealt with their mounting obligations and responsibilities as leaders in their kinship groups churches and schools Not only were notions about men and masculinity shaped by community standards but they were strongly influenced by imported standards that came from missionaries and other colonial officials As he recounts the life histories of these men Miescher reveals that the passage to manhood and a position of power seniority authority and leadership was not always welcome or easy As an important foil for studies on women and femininity this groundbreaking book not only explores masculinity and ideals of male behavior but offers a fresh perspective on African men in a century of change The African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights [2 Volume Set] Nat Rubner,2023 A landmark study of the African Charter on human and peoples rights one of the most important documents in modern African history that positions it within the African Lives Matter struggle to assert an African identity rather than as simply a human rights document This set describes its underlying African origins and how the principles of the OAU influenced its path and content French Colonialism Unmasked Ruth Ginio,2006-12-01 Before the Vichy regime there was ostensibly only one France and one form of colonialism for French West Africa FWA World War II and the division of France into two ideological camps each asking for legitimacy from the colonized opened for Africans numerous unprecedented options French Colonialism Unmasked analyzes three dramatic years in the history of FWA from 1940 to 1943 in which the Vichy regime tried to impose the ideology of the National Revolution in the region Ruth Ginio shows how this was a watershed period in the history of the region by providing an in depth examination of the Vichy colonial visions and practices in fwa She describes the intriguing encounters between the colonial regime and African society along with the responses of different sectors in the African population to the Vichy policy Although French Colonialism Unmasked focuses on one region within the French Empire it has relevance to French colonial history in general by providing one of the missing pieces in research on Vichy colonialism Ruth Ginio is a research fellow at the Harry S Truman Research Institute for the Advancement of Peace in the Hebrew University of Jerusalem She is the author of articles in International Journal of African Historical Studies Revue d histoire moderne et contemporaine Cahiers d etudes africaines and several other journals The Last Imperialist Bruce Gilley,2021-09-21 The British Empire one of the most powerful forces in history was also one of the most humane Yet at its twilight few were willing to defy the anti colonial reaction that condemned millions to despotism under the regimes that replaced it Sir Alan Burns was among them In this lively and provocative work of history Bruce Gilley vindicates Sir Alan s view that decolonization was poorly managed and too swiftly executed a view based not on imperialist nostalgia but on a sober assessment of the ravages of the twentieth century Gilley demonstrates that Burns understood the benefits of colonial rule and correctly foretold the chaos that accompanied its rapid dissolution Relying on previously unavailable documentation from Burns s family The Last Imperialist dethrones the revisionist historians and shatters their unbalanced accusations against European colonialism This is history writing at its most courageous Brazilian-African Diaspora in Ghana Kwame Essien,2016-10-01 Brazilian African Diaspora in Ghana is a fresh approach challenging both pre existing and established notions of the African Diaspora by engaging new regions conceptualizations and articulations that move the field forward This book examines the untold story of freed slaves from Brazil who thrived socially culturally and economically despite the challenges they encountered after they settled in Ghana Kwame Essien goes beyond the one dimensional approach that only focuses on British abolitionists funding of freed slaves resettlements in Africa The new interpretation of reverse migrations examines the paradox of freedom in discussing how emancipated Brazilian Africans came under threat from British colonial officials who introduced stringent land ordinances that deprived the freed Brazilian Africans from owning land particularly Brazilian land Essien considers anew contention between the returnees and other entities that were simultaneously vying for control over social political commercial and religious spaces in Accra and tackles the fluidity of memory and how it continues to shape Ghana s history The ongoing search for lost connections with the support of the Brazilian government inspiring multiple generations of Tabom offspring of the returnees to travel across the Atlantic and back especially in the last decade illustrates the unending nature of the transatlantic diaspora journey and its impacts The Ahmadiyya in the Gold Coast John H. Hanson,2017-10-16 The Ahmadiyya Muslim Community a global movement with more than half a million Ghanaian members runs an extensive network of English language schools and medical facilities in Ghana today Founded in South Asia in 1889 the Ahmadiyya arrived in Ghana when a small coastal community invited an Ahmadiyya missionary to visit in 1921 Why did this invitation arise and how did the Ahmadiyya become such a vibrant religious community John H Hanson places the early history of the Ahmadiyya into the religious and cultural transformations of the British Gold Coast colonial Ghana Beginning with accounts of the visions of the African Methodist Binyameen Sam Hanson reveals how Sam established a Muslim community in a coastal context dominated by indigenous expressions and Christian missions Hanson also illuminates the Islamic networks that connected this small Muslim community through London to British India African Ahmadi Muslims working with a few South Asian Ahmadiyya missionaries spread the Ahmadiyya's theological message and educational ethos with zeal and effectiveness This is a global story of religious engagement modernity and cultural transformations arising at the dawn of independence Boundaries, Communities and State-Making in West Africa Paul Nugent, 2019-06-06 By examining three centuries of history this book shows how vital border regions have been in shaping states and social contracts 2001 Massimo Mastrogregori, 2011-08-02 Annually published since 1930 the International bibliography of Historical Sciences IBOHS is an international bibliography of the most important historical monographs and periodical articles published throughout the world which deal with history from the earliest to the most recent times The works are arranged systematically according to period region or historical discipline and within this classification alphabetically The bibliography contains a geographical index and indexes of persons and authors Britannica Book of the Year 2009 Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc., 2009-03-01 The Britannica Book of the Year 2009 provides a valuable viewpoint of the people and events that shaped the year and serves as a great reference source for the latest news on the ever changing populations governments and economies throughout the world It is an accurate and comprehensive reference that you will reach for again and again Britannica Book of the Year 2008 Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc., 2008-05-01 This yearbook presents information on the dates people events and world affairs of 2007 The section entitled Britannica World Data updated annually presents geographic demographic and economic details Britannica Book of the Year 2014 Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc., 2014-03-01 The Britannica Book of the Year 2014 provides a valuable viewpoint of the people and events that shaped the year and serves as a great reference source for the latest news on the ever changing populations governments and economies throughout the world It is an accurate and comprehensive reference that you will reach for again and again Africa and World War II Judith A. Byfield, Carolyn A. Brown, Timothy Parsons, Ahmad Alawad Sikainga, 2015-04-16 This volume considers the military economic and political significance of Africa during World War II The essays feature new research and innovative approaches to the historiography of Africa and bring to the fore issues of race gender and labor during the war topics that have not yet received much critical attention It explores the experiences of male and female combatants peasant producers women traders missionaries and sex workers The first section offers three introductory essays that give a continent wide overview of how Africa sustained the Allied effort through labor and resources The six sections that follow offer individual case studies from different parts of the continent Contributors offer a macro and micro view of the multiple levels on which Africa's contributions shaped the war as well as the ways in which the war affected individuals and communities and transformed Africa's political economic and social landscape
