A World War II Story Of Love And Survival Ilene Brown, 2014-01-12 Ilene Brown says I am a retired teacher not an author You can probably tell when you read my book The only World War II war widow that she knows of in the East Texas area Ilene felt compelled to write of her life beginning as a young war bride and continuing through 66 years of marriage Her story is one of both heartache and joy She especially wants to emphasize the blessing of freedom that Americans enjoy each day She says We owe our freedom first to God and then to our brave World War II heroes who endured so much to save us Many never returned Their bodies lie in graves all over the world Ilene lives on a farm outside Canton TX a United States flag flies everyday in her front yard in memory of Doug and his war buddies

A Hero of Love and War Thomas

Morrow, 2015-11-06 Inspired by true events A Hero of Love and War is a story of World War II bravery and heroism and the enduring power of love The story begins in 1942 when Patricia Faust and her mother move into the upstairs apartment of the home owned by Will Bardon As the relationship between Will and Patricia develops Will and his widowed mother are devastated by the news that Wills brother Robert has been killed in France Will resolves that he can no longer sit idly by while others sacrifice their lives to defend their country Over Patricias protests he enlists in the army air force On December 30 1943 returning from a bombing run Wills plane is shot down over German occupied France Gravely wounded Will spends nine days in the frigid Ardennes forest before he is found by French Ristance fighters With his legs badly gangrened the French fighters realize they have no alternative but to turn Will over to the Germans for medical treatment Before they do the French remove Wills dog tags which identify him as Jewish Without his dog tags Wills identity remains unknown and he is reported missing in action Believing the love of her life to have been killed in action Patricia enters a relationship with a young man who is launching a career with US clandestine services Patricias world is abruptly turned upside down when Will is discovered in a POW camp in Poland As he is repatriated Patricia is suddenly confronted with the reality that Will is now a double amputee Facing years of rehabilitation Will insists that Patricia move on with her life without him Patricia marries the other man in her life and the reader is introduced to the excitement of life in Havana and Mexico City in the 1950s Nevertheless Patricia finds herself inexorably drawn to her first love The story ends with an affirmation of the indomitable power of love and the human spirit to overcome impossible odds The Japanese Soldiers in the Second World War Keiichi It?,2024-07-01 Keiichi It bluntly writes from his own experience about the lives of Japanese soldiers at the front during the Second World War especially in China He combines interviews and testimonies to create a well rounded and candid picture that shows war from a personal and universal human perspective Such diverse topics as the soldiers battles and experiences prostitution and exchanges with the Chinese people are described The mentality of the Japanese people the building blocks of society and the military organization are also recognizable and subtly woven into the work
