The Soldier Experience in the Fourteenth Century Anne Curry, Andy King, David Simpkin, 2011 Essays throwing fresh light on what it was like to be a medieval soldier drawing on archival research The long fourteenth century saw England fighting wars on a number of diverse fronts not just abroad in the Hundred Years War but closer to home But while tactics battles and logistics have been frequently discussed the actual experience of being a soldier has been less often studied Via a careful re-evaluation of original sources and the use of innovative methodological techniques such as statistical analysis and the use of relational databases the essays here bring new insights to bear on soldiers both as individuals and as groups Topics addressed include military service and the dynamics of recruitment the social composition of the armies the question of whether soldiers saw their role as a profession and the experience of prisoners of war Contributors Andrew Ayton David Simpkin Andrew Spencer David Bachrach Iain MacInnes Adam Chapman Michael Jones Guilhem Pepin Remy Ambuhl Adrian R Bell

Economies of Desire at the Victorian Fin de Siècle Jane Ford, Kim Edwards Keates, Patricia Pulham, 2015-10-14 This volume marks the first sustained study to interrogate how and why issues of sexuality desire and economic processes intersect in the literature and culture of the Victorian fin de siècle At the end of the nineteenth century the move towards new models of economic thought marked the transition from a marketplace centred around the fulfilment of needs to one ministering to anything that might potentially be desired This collection considers how the literature of the period meditates on the interaction between economy and desire doing so with particular reference to the themes of fetishism homoeroticism the literary marketplace social hierarchy and consumer culture Drawing on theoretical and conceptual approaches including queer theory feminist theory and gift theory contributors offer original analyses of work by canonical and lesser known writers including Oscar Wilde A E Housman Baron Corvo Vernon Lee Michael Field and Lucas Malet The collection builds on recent critical developments in fin de si cle literature including major interventions in the areas of Decadence sexuality and gender studies and asks for instance how did late nineteenth century writing schematise the libidinal and somatic dimensions of economic exchange How might we define the relationship between eroticism and the formal economies of literary production performance And what relation exists between advertising consumer culture and dissident sexuality in fin de siecle literary discourses This book marks an important contribution to 19th Century and Victorian literary studies and enhances the field of fin de si cle studies more generally A. Administration and Organization of War in Thirteenth-Century England David S. Bachrach, 2020-03-11 The essays brought together in this volume examine the conduct of war by the Angevin kings of England during the long thirteenth century 1189-1307 Drawing upon a wide range of unpublished administrative records that have been largely ignored by previous scholarship David S. Bachrach offers new insights into the military technology of the period including the types of artillery and missile weapons produced by the royal government The studies in this volume also highlight the administrative sophistication of the Angevin kings in military affairs showing how they produced and maintained huge arsenals mobilized vast quantities of supplies for their armies in the field and provided for the pastoral care of their men Bachrach also challenges the knight-centric focus of much of the scholarship on this period demonstrating that the militarization of the English population penetrated to men in the lower social and economic strata who volunteered in large numbers for military service and even made careers as professional soldiers CS1088
