charm Kirkus Reviews Dolores Gordon Smith keeps her plot twisting and turning Historical Novel Society Sicut Lilium inter Spinas Camilla Caporicci, 2018-03-21 The relationship between literature and religion is a crucial element in the definition of every cultural system Literary traditions developed in such close connection with religious thought symbolism institutions and practices that our understanding of both literary and religious expressions of an age necessarily depends on our consideration of their interconnectedness This is particularly true for such a controversial age as the European Renaissance a period that witnessed the rise of national states and the great Catholic Protestant schism a rediscovery of classical antiquity and a new approach to the biblical text the flourishing of literature and art and strong politico religious censorship a definite advancement in philosophical scientific and political thought and a profound redefinition of the relationships and boundaries between the sacred and profane By taking into account different literary and cultural systems and being open to a plurality of approaches this volume explores the relationship between literature and religion in a period crucial to the development of European cultural identity offering both innovative readings of world famous works and a re-discovery of less familiar texts For Self-Examination and Judge for Yourself! Søren Kierkegaard, 2019-04-30 For Self Examination and its companion piece Judge for Yourself are the culmination of Søren Kierkegaard's second authorship which followed his Concluding Unscientific Postscript Among the simplest and most readily comprehended of Kierkegaard's books the two works are part of the signed direct communications as distinguished from his earlier pseudonymous writings The lucidity and pithiness and earnestness and power of For Self Examination and Judge for Yourself are enhanced when as Kierkegaard requested they are read aloud They contain the well known passages on Socrates defense speech how to read the lover's letter the royal coachman and the carriage team and the painter's relation to his painting The aim of awakening and inward deepening is signaled by the opening section on Socrates in For Self Examination and is pursued in the context of the relations of Christian ideality grace and response The secondary aim a critique of the established order links the works to the final polemical writings that appear later after a four year period of silence Originally published in 1944 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
