

One Solitary Life

He was born in an obscure village... he worked in a carpenter shop until he was thirty... he then became an itinerant preacher.

*He never held an office... he never had a family or owned a house...
he didn't go to college...*

*he had no credentials but himself.
Nineteen centuries have come and gone,
and today he is the central figure of the human race.*

*All the armies that ever marched,
all the navies that ever sailed,
all the parliaments that ever sat,
and all the kings that ever reigned have not affected the life of man on this earth as much as that...*

Solitary Life:

One Solitary Life Anthony Fisichella, 2008-01-18 The Divine Knowledge Gnosis explored in the trilogy One Solitary Life embodies the coordinates of the path of man's evolution toward divinity leading to the attainment of man's Spiritual Legacy union with the Divine Cover Lovely, Lonely Life: a Woman's Village Journal, 1973-1982 (Volume I) Mary Kelly Black, 2007-10-22 These journal entries comprise two volumes of selections Vol I 1973 1982 Vol II 1983 2003 Volume I includes an Introduction and some biographical memories As Stephane Mallarme considered literature the antithesis of journalism a journal is often the antithesis of a diary It is of less interest to record moods and events or barriers to self realization than to have ideas and insights about these As a journal keeper I am generally disinterested in diurnal details unless these form the compost of deeper exploration or revelation seeking insight into my condition not simply its description A journal therefore is often more complex and difficult than a diary far less personal in depictions of daily fortune using everyday experiences as a stepstool at the least to peer beyond the walls of psychological enclosure I did not choose the journal form to mask the personal to belittle or avoid it but to reflect my most intimate assessment of the personal as contributing to something greater comprehension It is not enough merely to record the frustrations joys or barriers of living without appraising these for what they represent and suggest where we learn not merely reiterate The ideal criteria of selection and discrimination apply not only to one's journal but to life as well adding a mythological drama and perspective that immersion alone does not permit In some ways journalizing is similar in impulse to the pastoral ethos or motif familiar in contemplative writing from Virgil to Thoreau one withdraws from active society toward natural or rural settings in search of some form of respite then returns to tell of their discoveries Some critics have seen this as the organizing design of most North American fables in fact as the American mythology seeking to heal the serious schism between our natural psyche and its more devastated environment that is a search for a middle ground or via media between the primitive and the technologically complex This volume of journal selections resembles that motif focusing on the withdrawal phase of a generally recuperative metaphysical cycle Such solitude is intentional a critical phase in the live withdraw live again cycle of spiritual refreshment A recuperative isolation can be experienced daily if one is discriminating in how their time is spent but is usually gained more intensely over long purposefully reclusive periods The motivations for my withdrawal were several perhaps the strongest a propensity as described of another Irish writer for being nearly overcome by the variety of life If not overcome certainly fatigued by events in and of themselves A reflective silence seemed essential to examine the roots of this propensity An ideal of pure time free of most distractions human or otherwise was also necessary for writing of the sort that interested me the personally contemplative or mystical Only through such reflection could I ever achieve a meaningful connection with the more active life that surrounded me The predominant experience of solitude especially in a society where the value of withdrawal is suspect or sporadic is the figurative isolation one experiences throughout the entire cycle of withdrawal and re emergence It is generally difficult for lovers of action to comprehend this attraction to non doing One of the aims of solitude is to reunite philosophy and religion or rather philosophy and awe to not accept the social impoverishment of these universal needs for knowledge and worship The asceticism of retreat was not solely the traditional and philosophical appeal of simplicity but the freedom from income producing and time consuming work it permitted For the solitary however an ideal of pure time must be united with an ideal of intimate association if the mystical quest is to be emotionally as well a

One Solitary Life James Allan Francis, Kenneth H. Blanchard, Mac Anderson, 2007 Nirvana Susunaga Weeraperuma, 2003 NIRVANA THE HIGHEST HAPPINESS is the fruit of a lifetime of meditation and contemplation of Buddhist questions Written in a lucid style this book covers all the major aspects of Buddhism such as karma meditation the illusion of I the belief in a Creator God the personality of the Buddha Ambapali Angulimala sincere friendship the power of paritta chanting our debt of gratitude to our parents and Nirvana Did the Buddha condone or condemn meat eating There is abundant evidence that the Buddha when he was a man of advanced years denounced the practice of meat eating That is the message for posterity from the Mahaparinirvana Sutra and the Lankavatara Sutra a Mahayana text Vegetarianism springs from the purified inner states of loving kindness Metta and compassion Karuna Weeraperuma has beautifully restated in his own words the 41 verses of the Khaggavisanasutta wherein the Buddha stressed the importance of leading a solitary life One must be alone like the horn of a rhinoceros Freed from all attachments the highest happiness of Nirvana is attainable right here and now in this very life itself

Anchoritic Spirituality Anne Savage, Nicholas Watson, 1991 Sometime in the first quarter of the 13th century a number of works were written for anchoresses women who lived as religious recluses in cells adjoining churches The most influential is Ancrene Wisse A Guide for Anchoresses which discusses in great detail the daily life of the anchoress both outer and inner This work gives a detailed sense of a powerful and multi faceted spirituality different from that of other mystics

Summa Theologica, Part III (Tertia Pars) Thomas Aquinas, 2021-12-12 Summa Theologica Part III Tertia Pars Thomas Aquinas The Summa Theologiae Latin Compendium of Theology or Theological Compendium also subsequently called the Summa Theologica or simply the Summa written 1265 1274 is the best known work of Thomas Aquinas c 1225 1274 and although unfinished one of the classics of the history of philosophy and one of the most influential works of Western literature It is intended as a manual for beginners in theology and a compendium of all of the main theological teachings of the Church It presents the reasoning for almost all points of Christian theology in the West The Summa s topics follow a cycle the existence of God Creation Man Man s purpose Christ the Sacraments and back to God courtesy of wikipedia com This is part 3 Tertia Pars The way which leads to God is Christ the theme of part III It can be asserted that the incarnation was absolutely necessary The Unio between the Logos and the human nature is a relation between the divine and the human nature which comes about by both natures being brought together in the one person of the Logos An incarnation can be spoken of only in the sense that the human nature began to be in the eternal hypostasis of the divine nature So Christ is unum since his human nature lacks the hypostasis The person of the Logos accordingly has assumed the impersonal human nature and in such way that the assumption of the soul became the means for the assumption of the body This union with the human soul is the gratia unionis which leads to the impartation of the gratia habitualis from the Logos to the human nature Thereby all human potentialities are made perfect in Jesus Besides the perfections given by the vision of God which Jesus enjoyed from the beginning he receives all others by the gratia habitualis
