The image shows a collection of pencil sketches on a light blue background. There are three main sketches: a green pencil on the left, a red pencil on the right, and a black pencil at the bottom. The sketches depict human figures in perspective, with some showing heads and others showing full bodies. The sketches are done in a loose, expressive style. The red pencil is positioned at the top right, the green pencil at the top left, and the black pencil at the bottom left. The sketches are arranged in a way that they seem to be part of a larger study or exercise.
