Social Consequences of the Financial Crisis in Asia James C. Knowles, Ernesto M. Pernia, Mary Racelis, 1999-07 Assesses the social impact of the Asian financial crisis drawing on the results of studies in 6 countries Indonesia Republic of Korea Laos Malaysia Philippines and Thailand The impacts appear to be less than were anticipated early in the crisis However it seems too early to draw conclusions about the eventual social consequences This study is an interim assessment of the social impact of the crisis which requires further monitoring Chapters transmission of social impacts prices employment and income inequality and poverty human development social capital environment especially disadvantaged groups conclusions and implications Charts and tables

Poverty and Global Recession in Southeast Asia Aris Ananta, Richard R. Barichello, 2012 This book started with an objective to understand the impact of high inflation on poverty and food security in Southeast Asia. However, the global economy moved quickly into recession in 2008. Anticipating that the impact of global recession would be more severe than that of high inflation in Southeast Asia, we re-focused the title of the book to Poverty, Food and Global Recession in Southeast Asia. By early 2010, people were already optimistic that the global recession was over or would be over soon. However, the evidence was mounting that the poor had suffered and were still suffering from the current global crisis, even if the richer individuals may have recovered. Therefore, an important question arises: Is the crisis really over for the poor? This then became the sub-title of this book. This book aims to contribute a better understanding on poverty and food security in Southeast Asia during the recent global recession, considering both recent developments and the previous major crisis of 1997-98.

The Asia Recovery Van Hoa Tran, 2001-01-01. This book explores in depth the major issues and important aspects of this economic recovery and its potential impact on growth, development, trade and investment. Expert contributors also discuss the global directions in international economic and financial relations, corporate and public governance, and the challenges to be met and managed in the 21st century.

The Korean Developmental State Iain Pirie, 2007-09-12. The Korean Developmental State is a comprehensive and up-to-date analysis of processes of state and economic restructuring in South Korea since the 1997 crisis. The book distinguishes itself from previous studies by consistently arguing that structural changes in the global political economy have played a crucial role in reshaping the Korean state's own economic project. More precisely, Iain Pirie seeks to demonstrate how the Korean state increasingly adopted neo-liberal policies from the 1980s onwards as a rational response to the evolution of global economic structures, an evolution which has been driven by the continuous attempts of major global firms and leading capitalist states to overcome the chronic profitability problems that have dogged the core capitalist area since the late 1960s. The radical restructuring programme the Korean state initiated after the 1997 crisis must be understood as a logical conclusion to these earlier, more incremental processes of reform it initiated almost two decades earlier. This book seeks to establish the neo-liberal character of the Korean state through a close analysis of key institutional and policy reforms and serious engagement with more theoretical debates concerning the nature of the neo-liberal state itself. The Korean Developmental State offers a new perspective on the economic experience of Korea as a development model, one that emphasizes global trends and contradictions for Korea's economic crisis and resulting transformation, and as such will be of significant interest to scholars of Korean studies and the Asian economy.

Competition Policy and Global Competitiveness in Major Asian Economies Van Hoa Tran, 2003-01-01. This text reveals how competition policy and competitiveness are crucial to contemporary economic, financial and trade management, as well as national and international governance, and focuses on contemporary major Asian economies facing increasing globalization and the prevailing influence of the WTO.
