Social Movements Civil Society And Radical Adult Education:

Social Movements and Civil Society John D. Holst, 2000      Gramsci, Freire and Adult Education Peter Mayo, 1999-04

This book focuses on two of the most cited figures in the debate on radical education Antonio Gramsci 1891 1937 and Paulo Freire 1921 1997 Both regarded forms of adult education as having an important role to play in the struggle for liberation from oppression Peter Mayo examines the extent to which their combined insights can provide the foundation for a theory of transformative adult education He considers their respective contributions to the development of such a theory analyzes their ideas comparatively and identifies some of the limitations in their work for incorporation into a theory The book concludes with a major synthesis of their ideas in the context of other adult educators more recent contributions in order to develop a theory of transformative adult education      Social Movements, Civil Society, and Radical Adult Education John D.

Holst, 2002 This text analyses the history of social movement civil society theory within radical adult education the Left It argues that Gramsci did not advocate building civil society but proletarian hegemony      Social Movements, Civil Society, and Radical Adult Education John D. Holst, 2002 This text analyses the history of social movement civil society theory within radical adult education the Left It argues that Gramsci did not advocate building civil society but proletarian hegemony

Tectonic Boundaries: Negotiating Convergent Forces in Adult Education Carmela R. Nanton, 2016-02-22 Much like how tectonic plates interact this volume explores the convergent divergent and transforming interaction of multiple forces pressing against adult contemporary education Presenting multiple perspectives and environments topics covered include possibilities and requirements for change that will be needed in curriculum philosophy programs and practice strategies for negotiating the interactive boundaries of a dynamic complex fluid global environment and case studies and examples from theory pedagogy technology healthcare workplace society and policies This is the 149th volume of the Jossey Bass series New Directions for Adult and Continuing Education Noted for its depth of coverage it explores issues of common interest to instructors administrators counselors and policymakers in a broad range of education settings such as colleges and universities extension programs businesses libraries and museums      The Gülen Movement Salih

Cingilhoğlu, 2017-03-10 This book presents findings from research into one of the world's most influential Islamic movements the Gülen Movement from the perspective of social transformation through adult education At the core of research questions lies how the movement enrolls volunteers from all walks of life and transforms them to adopt its aims at the expense of their individual ideals The book reveals the socio psychological mechanisms that make such transformation possible by looking at how followers integrate weekly lectures and discussions on the theory and practice of Islam into their personal and social lives The Gülen Movement offers a moderate interpretation of Islam and stresses the vitality of establishing communication with the members of all faiths This book provides a window into how and why religion may roll into extremism by presenting findings from an opposite perspective the participants in the research all define themselves as truly pious but do not even imply an act of violence in tens of hours of interviews In short the book weaves the strands of Islamic movement and adult education into a unified whole and limns the snapshot of a social movement offering a comprehensive discussion of the role of adult education within the movement as well as its transformative potential and its wider social and political implications

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and the Poor People's Campaign of 1968 Robert Hamilton, 2020-12 This book introduces new audiences to Dr Martin Luther King Jr's final initiative the multiracial Poor People's Campaign PPC of 1968 Robert Hamilton depicts the experience of poor people who traveled to Washington in May 1968 to dramatize the issue of poverty by building a temporary city Resurrection City His narrative allows us to hear their voices and understand the strategies objectives and organization of the campaign In addition he highlights the campaign's educational aspect showing that significant social movements are a means by which societies learn about themselves and framing the PPC as an initiative whose example can teach and inspire current and future generations The study thus situates Dr Martin Luther King Jr's legacy and teachings in relation to current events and further solidifies Dr King's cultural and sociopolitical relevance In the decades since 1968 we have seen increasing global inequality leading to greater social polarization including in the United States Hamilton offers the insight that the radical politics of Dr King as represented in the civil rights and human rights agendas of the PPC can help us understand and address the challenges of this polarization Hamilton highlights Dr King's commitment to ending poverty and explains why Dr King's ideas on this and related issues should be brought to the attention of a wider public who often view him almost exclusively as a civil rights but not a human rights leader

Epistemologies and Ethics in Adult Education and Lifelong Learning Richard G. Bagnall, Steven Hodge, 2022-02-17 This book presents and advocates for a framework of competing epistemologies and conceptions of ethics as a way of understanding modernist lifelong learning These epistemologies are grounded in a recognition of the normative nature of knowledge that informs lifelong learning each being framed by a different account of the sort of knowledge that is most valued and therefore foregrounded in lifelong learning policy provision and engagement informed by the epistemology Each epistemology is also characterised by its constituent conception of ethics Four such epistemologies and conceptions of ethics are here recognised as having been important in the lifelong learning movement to date disciplinary developmental emancipatory and design The authors argue that assumptions about knowledge and moral positions constitute a powerful but not well understood feature of such arguments awareness of these assumptions and positions could serve to powerfully advance the overall understanding of what is at stake in lifelong learning and adult education at all levels     Disrupting Adult and Community Education Robert C. Mizzi, Tonette S. Rocco, Sue Shore, 2016-05-12 Honorable Mention 2017 Phillip E Frandson Award for Literature in the Field of Professional Continuing and or Online Education presented by the University Professional and Continuing Education Association This groundbreaking book critiques the boundaries of where adult education takes place through a candid examination of teaching learning and working practices in the social periphery Lives in this context are diverse and made through complex practices that take place in the shadows of formal systems on streetscapes and farms in vehicles and homes and through underground networks Educators may be family members friends or colleagues and the curriculum may be based on needs interests histories and cultural practices The case studies presented here analyze adult education in the lives of sex workers LGBTQ activists undocumented migrants disabled workers homeless youth immigrants inmates and others Focusing on learning at the social margins this book challenges readers to reconceptualize local national and transnational adult education practices in light of neoliberalism and globalization     Adult Learning and Education Kjell Rubenson, 2011-01-07 As individuals and societies try to respond to fundamental economic and social transformation the field of adult learning and education is rapidly getting increased attention and new topics for research on adult learning have emerged This collection of articles from the International Encyclopedia of Education 3e offers practitioners and researchers in the area of adult learning and education a comprehensive summary of main developments in the field The 45 articles provide insight into the historical development of the field its conceptual controversies domains and provision perspectives on adult learning instruction and program planning outcomes relationship to economy and society and its status as a field of scholarly study and practice Saves researchers time in summarizing in one place what is otherwise an interdisciplinary field in cognitive psychology personality sociology and education Level of presentation focuses on critical research leaving out the extraneous and focusing on need to know information Contains contributions from top international researchers in the field Makes MRW content affordable to individual researchers     Handbook of Adult and Continuing Education Carol E. Antonio Gramsci: A Pedagogy to Change the World Nicola Pizzolato, John D. Holst, 2017-06-12 This volume provides evidence for the argument of a central place of pedagogy in the interpretation of Gramsci's political theory Gramsci's view that every relationship of hegemony is necessarily a pedagogical relationship makes it imperative to dismiss narrow and formal interpretations of his educational theories as applying to schooling only This book argues that what is required rather is an inquiry into the Italian thinker's broad conceptualisation of pedagogy which he thought of as a quintessential political activity central to understanding and transforming society Preceded by a broad introduction that positions Gramsci in his context and in the literature the essays in this book critically revisit the many passages of the Prison Notebooks and pre prison writings where Gramsci addresses the nexus between politics and pedagogy Some essays apply those concepts to specific contexts The book for the first time brings to the attention of an English speaking audience voices from the current historiography in Italy and Latin America We are forced at regular intervals to consider how Gramsci might still be useful in particular national territories in an international context How can we carry on with pessimism of the intelligence but find some basis for optimism of the will From the foreword of Anne Showstack Sassoon Visiting Professor of Politics at the Department of Politics at Birbeck University of London
