Social Register Summer 1989 Volume Ciii:

The Age of Reform, 1815-1870 Ernest Llewellyn Woodward, 1962 Between Waterloo and Gladstone's first ministry Britain underwent a series of rapid and complex changes At home repression gave way to reform of the franchise local government education poor relief and the factory and legal systems Further agitation arose in the 1840s over the Corn Laws the People's Charter and the Irish Question By the 1860s Britain was able to bask in the glow of the mid Victorian supremacy forged by its economic might and the foreign policy pursued by Castlereagh Canning and Palmerston which maintained the balance of power and extended the colonial empire Authoritative and incisive this newly paperbacked volume in the Oxford History of England is a classic study of Britain in the ascendant Automation and Systems Issues in Air Traffic Control John A. Wise, V. David Hopkin, Marvin L. Smith, 2012-12-06 In recent years increases in the amount and changes in the distribution of air traffic have been very dramatic and are continuing The need for changes in the current air traffic systems is equally clear While automation is generally accepted as a method of improving system safety and performance high levels of automation in complex human machine systems can have a negative effect on total system performance and have been identified as contributing factors in many accidents and failures Those responsible for designing the advanced air traffic control systems to be implemented throughout the alliance during the next decade need to be aware of recent progress concerning the most effective application of automation and artificial intelligence in human computer systems This volume gives the proceedings of the NATO Advanced Study Institute held in Maratea Italy June 18-29 1990 at which these issues were discussed The Registrar-General's Statistical Review of England and Wales Great Britain.
