serials commencing publication after Dec 31 1949 Remaking Social Work with Children and Families Paul Michael Garrett, 2004-06-01 Remaking Social Work with Children and Families provides a sustained examination of the modernisation of this area of social care It analyses some of the key themes introduced by the administrations of John Major and Tony Blair and provides a critical exploration of contemporary policy initiatives and issues These include the Looking After Children LAC materials The Framework for the Assessment of Children in Need and Their Families working together to protect children the mainstream approach to race and ethnicity in social work the implications for social work of the emergence of personal advisers mentors and related professionals. The author argues that political and ideological factors need to be taken into account in order to understand the dominant discourses and evolving practices of social work with children Potential fixation with ensuring that young people are able to fit into their allotted roles in a market economy and an overarching concern about children and criminality have been crucial in this respect He concludes that while social workers and educators should be prepared to embrace change they need to be critical agents in the process of change recognising the ever present need to promote and foster democracy within the sphere of social welfare This timely book will be helpful to all students educators and social care professionals who are seeking to develop their theoretical and practical understanding of a changing profession Social Security Bulletin ,1993 Annual Register University of Chicago, 1898 of the Board of Trustees of the Federal Old-age and Survivors Insurance Trust Fund and the Federal Disability Insurance Trust Fund United States. Board of Trustees of the Federal Old-age and Survivors Insurance and Disability Insurance Trust Global Social Policy Bob Deacon, 1997-10-27 This accessible text looks at the impact of the globalization Funds, 1994 process on social policy National social policy is increasingly determined by global economic competition and international organizations Its substance is becoming more and more transnational and now has to be understood in terms of global social redistribution social regulation social provision and empowerment Global Social Policy examines trends in global inequity and summarizes the diverse experiences of different welfare regimes across the world The authors review the social policies of international organizations such as the World Bank the International Monetary Fund UN Agencies and the European Union and show them to be engaged in heated controversy regarding the future for welfare They argue that this concealed global discourse needs to be brought into an accountable arena Internal Revenue Cumulative Bulletin United States.
