International Conference on Education and Social Science (UPINCESS 2023) Ari Kusuma Wardana,2023-12-31 This is an open access book Technology has had a huge impact on education and social dynamics around the world Since the introduction of information and communication technologies ICTs such as the internet smartphones and social media much has changed in the way we learn and interact with others In education technology has enabled students and teachers to access more diverse and engaging educational resources With internet access students and teachers can access educational resources from all over the world and learn about various topics and disciplines In addition technology also enables distance learning which allows students and teachers to connect from different locations However there are also negative impacts of using technology in education For example excessive use of social media and the internet can cause concentration disorders and addiction in students In addition too much reliance on technology can also reduce students ability to think critically and solve problems independently In social dynamics technology has allowed us to connect with people from all over the world and paved the way for greater collaboration and cultural exchange However technology has also brought negative impacts on social dynamics such as the spread of fake news or hoaxes cyberbullying and social media addiction In this regard technology can be a very useful tool if used wisely and with proper understanding of its impact Therefore to support this Universitas PGRI Yogyakarta was hold an international conference and Call for Papers The 2nd UPY International Conference on Education and Social Science UPINCESS The Impact of Technology on Education and Social Dynamics on September 27 2023 The conference aims to discuss in depth about the impact of technology on education and social dynamics as well as finding appropriate solutions and strategies to minimize its negative impact and maximize its benefits Experts researchers and practitioners in the field of education and technology from around the world can share their knowledge and experience in this conference and can encourage collaboration and innovation in this field Naval Training Bulletin ,1967

Learning Disabilities and Brain Function William H. Gaddes,2013-11-11 Reading this volume chapter by chapter I had a feeling of exuberance and exhilaration It is both a privilege and a challenge to write a foreword for this second edition of Learning Disabilities and Brain Function The scope and quality of the scientific and clinical insights expressed are unusual It is difficult to do justice to the book within the constraints of a foreword I can only reflect its significance to instructors scientists and clinicians in education psychology psychiatry pediatrics speech pathology and neurology In the early chapters are discussions of brain function as it relates to learning and learning disabilities with many implications for better understanding of the neurology of behavior These chapters are followed by an articulate consideration of neuropsychological disorders definition identification and diagnosis of the cognitive dysfunctions that underlie learning disabilities There is an analysis of the role of perception as well as of the significance of impaired sensory and motor cognitive processes The concluding chapters comprise a clear erudite yet practical discourse on the spectrum of language disorders including the spoken read and written forms Dr Gaddes provides a constructive review of what it means when children have aphasia of how this language disorder has implications for other types of learning He elucidates and evaluates the status of our knowledge relative to childhood dyslexia and dysgraphia This analysis holds promise for clarification of the issues that have been disconcerting especially to educators and psychologists Resources in Education ,1997 Building an ESL Collection for Young Adults Laura McCaffery,1998-10-28 This annotated bibliography of more than 500 recommended books

Dream Town Laura Meckler,2023-08-22 Winner of the Ohio Book Award Finalist of the Malott Prize for Recording Community Activism Can a group of well intentioned people fulfill the promise of racial integration in America In this searing and intimate examination of the ideals and realities of racial integration award winning Washington Post journalist Laura Meckler tells the story of a decades long pursuit in Shaker Heights Ohio and uncovers the roadblocks that have threatened progress time and again in housing in education and in the promise of shared community In the late 1950s Shaker Heights began groundbreaking work that would make it a national model for housing integration And beginning in the seventies it was known as a crown jewel in the national move to racially integrate schools The school district built a reputation for academic excellence and diversity serving as a model for how white and Black Americans can thrive together Meckler herself a product of Shaker Heights takes a deeper look into the place that shaped her investigating its complicated history and its ongoing challenges in order to untangle myth from truth She confronts an enduring and troubling question if Shaker Heights has worked so hard at racial equity why does a racial academic achievement gap persist In telling the stories of the Shakerites who have built and lived in this community Meckler asks What will it take to fulfill the promise of racial integration in America What compromises are people of all races willing to make What does success look like and has Shaker achieved it The result is a complex and masterfully reported portrait of a place that while never perfect has achieved more than most and a road map for communities that seek to do the same Includes black and white images National Survey of Secondary Education United States.
