Social Science In Question Towards A Postdisciplinary Framework:

Social Science in Question Mark J Smith, 1998-12-12 How do social scientists study the social world Is social scientific practice in transformation Can social science learn from its own past This major text takes the reader on an intellectual journey starting with the story of modern science and the impact that this has had on social scientific practice and going on to outline and critically review the major approaches to social scientific inquiry ranging from positivism to postmodernism Throughout readers are encouraged to think carefully about what it means to study the social world in a scientific way make connections between what they do and the everyday lives of the people they study and look beyond their discipline and think in a postdisciplinary way Applied Jewish Values in Social Sciences and Psychology Michael Ben-Avie, Yossi Ives, Kate Loewenthal, 2015-12-01 This volume interweaves concepts and methods from psychology and other social sciences with Jewish ideas and practices in order to address contemporary social issues This volume brings together pioneering research from scholars in such fields as psychology education and religious studies The authors integrate insights from Jewish texts and practices with the methods and concepts of the social sciences to create interventions that promote the well being of children adults families communities and society Divided into three sections Education Psychological Well Being Society and Beyond this book shows how this integrationist approach can deepen our understanding and generate new insights around pressing social challenges to impact positive change in the lives of people and communities Theoretical and Methodological Approaches to Social Sciences and Knowledge Management Asunción Lopez-Varela Azcárate, 2012-08-16 This is a unique and groundbreaking collection of questions and answers coming from higher education institutions on diverse fields and across a wide spectrum of countries and cultures It creates routes for further innovation collaboration amidst the Sciences both Natural and Social the Humanities and the private and public sectors of society The chapters speak across sociocultural concerns education welfare and artistic sectors under the common desire for direct responses in more effective ways by means of interaction across societal structures Approaches and Processes of Social Science Research Tshabangu, Icarbord, Ba', Stefano, Madondo, Silas Memory, 2020-12-18 For the social sciences the approach and processes in research are quite different The type of evidence that social scientists can collect is often very dependent on the method that has been used to gather the data The type of findings that can be discussed are often not straightforward at all and no easy comparison can be made with the natural sciences although this is not impossible The methodology in the social sciences has the same role as technology and lab techniques in the natural sciences as these need to be developed rapidly to account for the increasing complexity of the natural objects to be studied The methodologies in the social sciences need to go through an intense period of critique reflection and reformulation to consider the complexity of social issues under investigation Therefore the area of social sciences research and methodologies should continually be studied to advance the field Approaches and Processes of Social Science Research presents new research methodologies in the social science field and aims at providing a broad introduction to the methodology of social research in its main theoretical foundations as well as in its practical applications Readers will develop a critical thinking attitude about social problems which in turn will sharpen their analytic approach to research This book includes four main parts philosophical perspectives strategies for conducting research common approaches for handling and collecting data and critical aspects of research writing throughout the process While highlighting topics such as critical theory in research ethical issues research processes data analysis and more this book is ideal for researchers in the social sciences and practitioners stakeholders academicians and students interested in deepening their understanding of the ideas and the practices of social science research The Thinking Professional Rethinking State Theory Mark J Smith, Mark J. Smith, 2013-10-11 In the last two decades objects of analysis such as the state have increasingly been seen as uncertain and contested theoretical concepts Mark J Smith presents a counter argument that highlights how existing theoretical approaches can provide useful tools for understanding contemporary political developments Psychopathology and Social Prejudice Derek Hook, Gillian Eagle, 2002 This volume offers an innovative set of critical examinations of the field of psychopathology It investigates the social formation of psychopathology across different cultural discursive and political contexts and draws upon theory from two traditional domains of psychology social and abnormal psychology The diverse topics covered include xenophobia anorexia nervosa witch hunting post traumatic stress homosexuality race categorization and crosscultural issues The various topics work in concert to unseat the notion of psychopathology as comprising decontextualized individualized essentialist categories of organic illness Re-imagining the

Research Process Mats Alvesson, Jorgen Sandberg, 2021-09-01 This book offers a unique solution to the shortage of more imaginative and engaging research by re imagining the core elements of the research process In contrast to existing methods which mainly focus on standard ingredients in the research process the metaphorical approach taken here offers a more varied and comprehensive platform for producing novel influential and relevant research The set of guiding principles suggested in the book provides researchers with the resources to break away from existing conventions and templates for conducting and writing research Re imagining the Research Process Conventional and Alternative Metaphors is suitable for upper undergraduate and postgraduate students and researchers interested in challenging traditional views of the research process Mats Alvesson holds a chair in the Business Administration department at Lund University in Sweden and is also a part time professor at University of Queensland Business School Australia and at Cass Business School UK Jorgen Sandberg is Professor at UQ Business School University of Queensland Australia and Distinguished Research Environment Professor in Organization Studies at the Warwick Business School UK The Routledge Encyclopedia of Research Methods in Epistemology and Metaphysics for Qualitative Research Tomas Pernecky, 2016-09-22 This clearly written and provocative text outlines the wide range of epistemological and metaphysical pillars of research. In a clear, easy-to-follow style, the reader is guided through an array of concepts that are defined, explained and made simple. With the aid of helpful examples and case studies, the book challenges the prevailing modes of thinking about qualitative inquiry by showcasing an immense variety of philosophical frameworks. Armed with a strong understanding of this philosophical backbone, students will be able to choose and defend a pick-and-mix of research methods that will uniquely complement their research. Empiricism, Rationalism, Realism, Skepticism, Idealism, Positivism, Post-positivism, Idea-ism, Hermeneutics, Phenomenology, Social Ontology, Quantum Mechanics. Essential reading for new and experienced researchers, this must-for-any-social-science-bookshelf will help unlock a new level of research creativity.

Understanding Poverty and Well-Being David Hulme, John Toye, 2013-10-18 Written by a multi-disciplinary team of contributors, this collection explores the different dimensions of well-being, poverty and inequality. A person's sense of well-being is compounded of many elements, including economic, political and social psychology. Poverty and inequality are aspects of a lack of well-being in multiple dimensions, and this text argues development should be considered a process that overcomes these multiple deficiencies. This book examines the advantages of analysing poverty and development by multi-discipline research. Economists, political sociologists and anthropologists put forward an idea of well-being from their own perspective, using their own research material, while the editors argue in their introduction that bringing to bear of many disciplines can enrich the research output of all.

Philosophical Issues in Tourism John Tribe, 2009 The aim of this book is to bridge the disciplines of philosophy and tourism and to provide an analysis and application of philosophical issues of tourism. In doing so, this book focuses on three key areas of knowledge: aesthetics and values.

Advaita as a Global International Relations Theory Deepshikha Shahi, 2018-07-11 The academic discipline of International Relations strives to attain a global spirit to narrow the cognitive gaps between the West and the Rest On the one hand there is the hegemonic presence of mainstream universalist Eurocentric IR theories and on the other the counter hegemonic presence of particularist Post colonial and De colonial non Eurocentric IR theories Nevertheless both theoretical traditions endorse epistemological dualism that essentially separates the theorizing subject from the theorized object thereby failing to bridge the gaps This book uses the monist schema of subject object merger in the ancient Indian philosophy of Advaita to inaugurate a Global IR theory In the global theoretical schema of Advaitic monism the apparent particularist reality is supplemented not contradicted with the hidden universalist reality the net result of which is a reconciliation of dualism with monism at the theoretical practical level The possibilities of this reconciliation have not been estimated at either level and as such this untapped intellectual strategy stands to enrich both Eurocentric IR and non Eurocentric IR Shahi establishes Advaita as an alternative epistemological methodological tool to re imagine the complex realities of contemporary international politics This fully fledged Global International Relations Theory will appeal to students of international relations political theory administrative theory and philosophy

Environment and Citizenship Mark J. Smith, Doctor Piya Pangsapa, 2013-07-04 Citizenship and the environment are hotly debated as climate change places more responsibility on individuals and institutions in shaping policy Using new evidence and cases from across the globe Environment and Citizenship explores the new vocabulary of ecological citizenship and examines how successful environmental policy making depends on the responsible actions of citizens and civil society organizations as much as on governments and international treaties This accessible and thought provoking book provides a comprehensive and timely guide to the debates on environmental and ecological citizenship expertly combining examples of practice with theory examines how environmental movements have become increasingly involved in governance processes at the local national regional and intergovernmental levels explores the increasing importance of corporations and transnational networks through examples of stakeholding processes and participatory research in environmental decision making calls on researchers policy makers and activists to face a new challenge how to effectively link environmental justice with social justice Breaking new ground Smith and Pangsapa address how environmental responsibility operates through politics ethics culture and the everyday experiences of ctivists as well as how awareness of environmental and social injustice only leads to responsible actions and strategic change through civic engagement Philosophy & Methodology of the Social Sciences: Understanding social scientific practice Mark J. Smith, 2005 Covers the traditional literature on the philosophy of the social sciences and the contemporary philosophical and methodological debates developing at the heart of the disciplinary and interdisciplinary groups in the social sciences It addresses the needs of researchers and academics who are grappling with the relationship between questions of knowledge construction and the problems of social scientific method
