Dynes,2017-02-17 First published in 1987 this book encompasses a broad range interdisciplinary research into homosexuality displaying a full spectrum of points of view and given that the major traditions of modern homosexual research began in Europe is not restricted to works in English In general topics that are densely covered in the literature are presented in this guide selectively with some less studied topics such as Economics and Music fleshed out with signposts to more comprehensive research. It seeks to not only mirror existing publications but also to stimulate new work by pinpointing neglected themes and methods. This book will be of interest to students of sociology.

Juvenile Justice: A Social, Historical, and Legal Perspective Preston Elrod, R. Scott Ryder, 2020-02-20
 Juvenile Justice: A Social, Historical, and Legal Perspective Fifth Edition guides students in developing a sound and balanced understanding of juvenile justice and the social, legal, and historical context that shapes juvenile justice practice. Throughout the text, there are FYIs, Myths v Reality, Comparative Focus, and Interviews that highlight important facts, dispel common myths, compare practices in the United States with those of other countries, and allow readers to hear from present and former juvenile justice practitioners. Each chapter also contains critical thinking questions intended to help students examine key issues raised in the chapter and a discussion of important legal issues related to chapter content. Every new print copy includes an access code to the Navigate Companion Website that features interactive and informative learning resources to gauge understanding and help students study more effectively.

Women & Society (cit 3601-6000) JoAnn Delores Ee, Marie Barovic Rosenberg-Dishman, 1978-06
Gender, Class and Education (Routledge Revivals) Stephen Walker, Len Barton, 2013-11-05
 First published in 1983, Gender, Class and Education is a collection of papers that formed presentations at the Westhill Sociology of Education Conference in January 1982 and is the fifth such collection to emerge from the annual conference. The conference theme, Race, Class, and Gender, was not only chosen because of its topicality but also to provide a framework for debate between educational researchers and teachers. The papers focus on the reproduction of gender relations through education and provide important insights into how this process works, how it is resisted in schools and colleges, and the possibilities for radical intervention. This volume includes three teaching bibliographies on gender and education which were not presented at the conference but were compiled specially for the book.
