Society Without Fathers Or Husbands:

A Society Without Fathers Or Husbands Cai Hua, 2001-01-05 A fascinating account of the Na society which functions without the institution of marriage

On Our Minds Eric M. Gander, 2004-12-01 There is no question more fundamental to human existence than that posed by the nature versus nurture debate For much of the past century it was widely believed that there was no essential human nature and that people could be educated or socialized to thrive in almost any imaginable culture Today that orthodoxy is being directly and forcefully challenged by a new science of the mind evolutionary psychology Like the theory of evolution itself the implications of evolutionary psychology are provocative and unsettling Rather than viewing the human mind as a mysterious black box or a blank slate evolutionary psychologists see it as a physical organ that has evolved to process certain types of information in certain ways that enables us to thrive only in certain types of cultures In On Our Minds Eric M Gander examines all sides of the public debate between evolutionary psychologists and their critics Paying particularly close attention to the popular science writings of Steven Pinker Edward O Wilson Richard Dawkins and Stephen Jay Gould Gander traces the history of the controversy succinctly summarizes the claims and theories of the evolutionary psychologists dissects the various arguments deployed by each side and considers in detail the far reaching ramifications social cultural and political of this debate Gander's lucid and highly readable account concludes that evolutionary psychology now holds the potential to answer our oldest and most profound moral and philosophical questions fundamentally changing our self perception as a species

Quest for Harmony Chuan-kang Shih, 2009-12-07 In this long awaited ethnography Chuan kang Shih details the traditional social and cultural conditions of the Moso a matrilineal group living on the border of Yunnan and Sichuan Provinces in southwest China Among the Moso a majority of the adult population practice a visiting system called tise instead of marriage as the normal sexual and reproductive institution Until recently tise was noncontractual nonobligatory and nonexclusive Partners lived and worked in separate households The only prerequisite for a tise relationship was a mutual agreement between the man and the woman to allow sexual access to each other In a comprehensive account Quest for Harmony explores this unique practice specifically and offers thorough documentation fine grained analysis and an engaging discussion of the people history and structure of Moso society Drawing on the author's extensive fieldwork conducted from 1987 to 2006 this is the first ethnography of the Moso written in English

Unhitched Judith Stacey, 2011-05-02 Judith Stacey 2012 winner of the Simon and Gagnon Lifetime Achievement Award presented by the American Sociological Association A leading expert on the family explores varieties of love and counters the one size fits all vision of family values A leading expert on the family Judith Stacey is known for her provocative research on mainstream issues Finding herself impatient with increasingly calcified positions taken in the interminable wars over same sex marriage divorce fatherlessness marital fidelity and the like she struck out to profile unfamiliar cultures of contemporary love marriage and family values from around the world Built on bracing original research that spans gay men's intimacies and parenting in America to plural and non marital forms of family in South Africa and China Unhitched decouples the taken for granted relationships between love marriage and parenthood Countering the one size fits all vision of family values Stacey offers readers a lively in person introduction to these less familiar varieties of intimacy and family and to the social political and economic conditions that buttress and batter them Through compelling stories of real families navigating inescapable personal and political trade offs between desire and domesticity the book undermines popular convictions about family gender and sexuality held on the left right and center Taking on prejudices of both conservatives and feminists Unhitched poses a powerful empirical challenge to the belief that the nuclear family whether straight or gay is the single best way to meet our needs for intimacy and care Stacey calls on citizens and policy makers to make their peace with the fact that family diversity is here to stay

Mystifying China's Southwest Ethnic Borderlands Yuqing Yang, 2017-12-28 The Confucian notion of Harmony with difference he er bu tong has great political and cultural resonance in contemporary China which propagates the quest for a pluralist harmony between cultural and ethnic components of society In an attempt to examine a range of responses to this state envisioned ideal of accommodating ethnic differences this book analyzes the literary and cultural discourses that surround three minority regions in Southwest China Dali which was once the location of the ancient Nanzhao and Dali Kingdoms the homeland of the matrilineal Mosuo known as the Country of Women and the Tibetan areas associated with utopian Shangri La This book borrows Foucault's concept of heterotopia to address the contradictory and often simultaneously existing views of the minority region as rich treasure house of tradition and as intractable barrier to modern development which combine to give rise to productive tensions in scholastic and artistic creations Through reconstituting and performing the myths and legends of or about minority culture the representations of the three places turn into heterotopias which are posed between the mythical and the real in different ways Functioning as a self reflective mirror they simultaneously offer images of the actual habitats of the ethnic other which have been subject to socialist projects of modernity and become a viable means by which to exert material effects on the real landscape Products of a fascination with alternative social spaces the three mystified lands all contain conceptualizations of harmony be it spiritual gender based or ecological that are conceivably absent in the imperfect actuality of the Chinese heartland In conclusion these aesthetically constructed spaces of the other negotiate and enrich the discourse of Harmony with difference reacting to ethnic politics in PRC history and creating an audience that grows attentive to the traditions of minorities

After All Melvin Konner,2015-03-02 A sparkling thought provoking account of sexual differences Whether you re a man or a woman you ll find his conclusions gripping Jared Diamond There is a human genetic fluke that is surprisingly common due to a change in a key pair of chromosomes In the normal condition the two look the same but in this disorder one is malformed and shrunken beyond recognition The result is a shortened life span higher mortality at all ages an inability to reproduce premature hair loss and brain defects variously resulting in attention deficit hyperactivity conduct disorder hypersexuality and an enormous excess of both outward and self directed aggression It is called maleness Melvin Konner traces the arc of evolution to explain the relationships between women and men With patience and wit he explores the knotty question of whether men are necessary in the biological destiny of the human race He draws on multiple colorful examples from the natural world such as the mating habits of the octopus black widow angler fish and jacana and argues that maleness in humans is hardly necessary to the survival of the species In characteristically humorous and engaging prose Konner sheds light on our biologically different identities while noting the poignant exceptions that challenge the male female divide We meet hunter gatherers such as those in Botswana whose culture gave women a prominent place invented the working mother and respected women s voices around the fire Recent human history has upset this balance as a dense world of war fostered extreme male dominance But our species has been recovering over the past two centuries and an unstoppable move toward equality is afoot It will not be the end of men but it will be the end of male supremacy and a better wiser world for women and men alike The Theft of History Jack Goody,2012-03-29 Goody raises questions about theorists historians and methodology and proposes a new comparative approach to cross cultural analysis Mothers and Others Sarah Blaffer
