Songs and Lyrics from the English Playbooks Frederick Samuel Boas, 1945 The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature Frederick Wilse Bateson, 1940 The Function of Song in Contemporary British Drama Elizabeth Hale Winkler, 1990 This comprehensive study formulates an original theory that dramatic song must be perceived as a separate genre situated between poetry music and theater It focuses on John Arden Margaretta D Arcy Edward Bond Peter Barnes John Osborne Peter Nichols Harold Pinter Tom Stoppard Peter Shaffer and John McGrath Music in Shakespearean Tragedy Frederick William Sternfeld, 2005 First published in 1963 When originally published this book was the first to treat at full length the contribution which music makes to Shakespeare's great tragedies among them Hamlet Othello and King Lear Here the playwright's practices are studied in conjunction with those of his contemporaries Marlowe and Jonson Marston and Chapman From these comparative assessments there emerges the method that is peculiar to Shakespeare the employment of song and instrumental music to a degree hitherto unknown and their use as an integral part of the dramatic structure John Dryden David J. Latt, Samuel Holt Monk, 1976-04-12 John Dryden was first published in 1976 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions This annotated bibliography represents a comprehensive updating of Samuel Holt Monk's earlier work also published by the University of Minnesota Press John Dryden A List of Critical Studies Published from 1895 to 1948 out of print Since the publication of that earlier bibliography the number of studies devoted to Dryden has more than tripled and thus this new bibliography is essential for scholars of Dryden or related aspects of seventeenth and eighteenth century English literature This volume contains four times as many entries as the earlier volume and there is an extensive introduction by Professor Latt which surveys the historical shifts in critical opinion of Dryden The new volume incorporates all of the listings contained in the first one The entries include works that focus directly on Dryden those that discuss Dryden's works in the context of other writers and those that investigate material of general importance to Dryden studies Dissertations from American German English and French universities are included Complete bibliographic information is provided for virtually every entry The listings are grouped in nine categories and there is an additional section which covers festschriften and other collections of essays Works of exceptional value and those which develop new points of view are so designated The publishing history of each item is included along with the standard bibliographic information The index includes topical as well as author entries Music in Shakespearean Tragedy F W Sternfeld, 2013-09-13 First published in 1963 When originally published this book was the first to treat at full length the contribution which music makes to Shakespeare's great tragedies among them Hamlet Othello and King Lear Here the playwright's practices are studied in conjunction with those of his contemporaries Marlowe and Jonson Marston and Chapman From these comparative assessments there emerges the method that is peculiar to Shakespeare the employment of song and instrumental music to a degree hitherto unknown and their use as an integral part of the dramatic structure Song in English Comedy 1660 to 1728 Arthur Dorlag,1953 Fundamentals of Practical Cataloguing Margaret S. Copyright Office,1977 Library Manuals Various,2022-07-30 This set comprising out of print titles from The Library Association Series of Library Manuals and The Practical Library Handbooks is a key guide to the early modernisation of librarianship Systems set up then are still in use today giving the books practical use today as well as providing a valuable historical analysis of the discipline Masques, Mayings and Music-dramas Roger Savage,2014 Masques Mayings and Music Dramas comprises a sequence of in depth case studies of significant aspects of early twentieth century English music theatre Vaughan Williams forms a central thread in this discussion and Stratford upon Avon serves as a geographical focus point for mediating conflicting visions of an English musical tradition But the reach of the book is much wider shedding new light on English Wagnerism at Glastonbury especially and on the reception of Wagner's ideas as a point of emulation and resistance. No less significant is the discussion of Purcell and the seventeenth century masque, one of the primary sources for reimagining an English dramatic tradition and the more familiar images of the May festival, the Mummers play and the pageant play which are tellingly recontextualised. The book also looks at the associations between Vaughan Williams, the theatre artist Edward Gordon Craig and the impresario Serge Diaghilev. The sequence is framed by the image of the pilgrim vagabond, Vaughan Williams's setting of the poetry of Matthew Arnold and Robert Louis Stevenson as a metaphor and paradigm for his creative career and personal progress. The book not only sheds light on the activities and ambitions of principal agents but also illuminates a particularly dynamic moment in the reemergence of a distinctively English music theatrical practice, one especially concerned with calling on aspects of the past to help to secure a worthwhile future. Notions of Englishness turn out to be less insular than sometimes thought and the idea of a musical renaissance more complex when the case studies are understood in their proper historical context. Scholars and students of twentieth century English music theatre and opera will find this volume indispensable. Roger Savage is Honorary Fellow in English Literature at the University of Edinburgh. He has published widely on theatre and its interface with music from the baroque to the twentieth century in leading journals and books. National Union Catalog, 1983.
