Copyright Office, 1977      Emerging Trends in Nigerian Art Music Composition and Performance Oghenemudiakevwe Igbi, 2025-04-22 Nigeria brims with an array of art musicians who have endeavoured to create and perform art music using traditional compositional nuances and performance practices In a clime where other musical styles seem to thrive more than art music Nigerian composers are always on the lookout for fresh ideas and techniques in their creative endeavours in pursuance of sundry objectives As a dynamic art music composition and performance continue to evolve and offer themselves to an extensive range of creative dimensions Hence it becomes imperative to be acquainted with such emerging trends in furtherance of the course for the actualisation of an authentic Nigerian art music identity The book is a compendium of twenty one articles by eminent Nigerian music scholars Divided into three sections the book is not only targeted at illuminating the minds of its readers but is also a scholarly literature that interrogates and unearths some of the emerging developments in the field of music The chapters contained herein dwell on a variety of issues in the art from different viewpoints of art music composition composers art music performance or practices African music popular music and music education      Paperbound Books in Print 1995 Reed Reference

Publishing, R5ference Reed, 1995-12      Iranian Classical Music Laudan Nooshin, 2017-03-02 Questions of creativity and particularly the processes which underlie creative performance or improvisation form some of the central areas of interest in current musicology Yet the predominant discourses on which musicological thought in this area are based have rarely been challenged In this book Laudan Nooshin interrogates musicological discourses of creativity from the perspective of critical theory and postcolonial studies examining their ideological underpinnings the relationships of alterity which they sustain and the profound implications for our understanding of creative processes in music The repertoire which forms the book's main focus is Iranian classical music a tradition in which the performer plays a central creative role Addressing a number of issues regarding the nature of musical creativity the author explores both the discourses through which ideas about creativity are constructed exchanged and negotiated within this tradition and the practice by which new music comes into being For the latter she compares a number of performances by musicians playing a range of instruments and spanning a period of more than 30 years focusing on one particular section of repertoire dastg h Seg h and providing transcriptions of the performances as the basis for analytical exploration of the music's underlying compositional principles This book is about understanding musical creativity as a meaningful social practice It is the first to examine the ways in which ideas about tradition authenticity innovation and modernity in Iranian classical music form part of a wider social discourse on creativity and in particular how they inform debates regarding national and cultural identity Etude Music Magazine Theodore Presser, 1892 Includes music Duo-art Music Bulletin Aeolian Company, 1923 Music Apps for Musicians and Music Teachers Elizabeth C. Axford, 2015-02-19 In today's digital age learning and creating music has never been so easy and affordable Anyone can enhance their musical knowledge skills and creativity with the multitude of music apps available However sifting through thousands of music apps in the Apple App Store and Google Play can be a daunting task for any musician or music instructor But not anymore Having spent countless hours researching the most interesting useful educational fun and easy to use music apps Elizabeth C Axford in Music Apps for Musicians and Music Teachers surveys the landscape of music related apps for both iOS and Android mobile devices including tablets and smartphones Music Apps for Musicians and Music Teachers lists hundreds of music related apps organized by category including singing musical instruments music theory and composition songwriting improvisation recording evaluating music performances listening to music music history and literature music appreciation and more App developers are listed with each app including links to their websites for updates and support The book sections and chapters align with the newly revised National Standards for Music Education released in 2014 by the National Association for Music Education Suggested activities for educators are provided as well as key terms and a bibliography Music Apps for Musicians and Music Teachers is for anyone interested in music whether hobbyist or professional It enhances the ability to learn on the go by offering musicians music students and music instructors a list of the most useful music apps available The Etude, 1897 A monthly journal for the musician the music student and all music lovers Musical Courier and Review of Recorded Music, 1913 The New York Schools of Music and the Visual Arts Steven Johnson, 2012-11-12 Musicians and artists have always shared mutual interests and exchanged theories of art and creativity This exchange climaxed just after World War II when a group of New York based musicians including John Cage Morton Feldman Earle Brown and David Tudor formed friendships with a group of painters The latter group now known collectively as either the New York School or the Abstract Expressionists included Jackson Pollock Willem deKooning Robert Motherwell Mark Rothko Barnett Newman Clyfford Still Franz Kline Phillip Guston and William Baziotes The group also included a younger generation of artists particularly Robert Rauschenberg and Jasper Johns that stood somewhat apart from the Abstract Expressionists This group of painters created what is arguably the first significant American movement in the visual arts Inspired by the artists the New York School composers accomplished a similar feat By the beginning of the 1960s the New York Schools of art and music had assumed a position of leadership in the world of art For anyone interested in the development of 20th century art music and culture The New York Schools of Music and Art will make for illuminating reading When the Music Stopped Thomas J. Cottle, 2012-02-01 This is the story of one woman's decision to forfeit a brilliant career for the sake of motherhood Once a child prodigy Gitta Gradvova traveled the world as an internationally acclaimed concert pianist performing recitals as well as appearing with prominent orchestras of her era Her son Thomas J Cottle uses written records interviews and personal reminiscence to reconstruct her life as well as their own mother son relationship He is at times a storyteller at times a psychologist at times a son seeking to uncover those aspects of his mother s life he could never know or perhaps chose not to know until it was too late      Musical West, Music and the Dance ,1926      Music News ,1929      Dwight's Journal of Music ,1877      Educational Music Magazine ,1929

Music, Art and Emotion Conroy Cupido,2023-03-01 This book explores the ways in which four visual artists make sense of referentialism and emotion in music By listening to five art songs by Schubert Strauss Faur and Berlioz they were inspired to create new artworks as a result of their understanding of the meaning of the art songs This was done without an understanding of the text and the artists had to rely on referential meaning in music as well as the perceived or evoked emotions elicited by listening to the art songs The artworks created as a result of this project were exhibited at the Aardklop National Arts Festival entitled Nagmusiek This was a multi modal exhibition featuring music art and text This book employs Artistic Research and Phenomenology in order to understand this phenomenon as I explored the artists creative processes experiences and the tacit knowledge embedded in their artefacts This book would provide readers access to 20 new artworks each created as a result of the artists interpretation of the meaning they ascribed to art song Their creative process is also examined and synthesised with existing literature on emotion and referentialism in music      The Musicale ,1929      The Musical Monitor ,1917
