The Crystal Mirror of Philosophical Systems Thuken Losang Chokyi Nyima, 2017-06-06 The Crystal Mirror of Philosophical Systems by Thuken Losang Chokyi Nyima 1737 1802 is arguably the widest ranging account of religious philosophies ever written in pre modern Tibet Like most Tibetan texts on philosophical systems this work covers the major schools of India both Buddhist and non Buddhist but then goes on to discuss in detail the entire range of Tibetan traditions as well with separate chapters on the Nyingma Kadam Kagyu Shije Sakya Jonang Geluk and Bon schools Not resting there Thuken goes on to describe the major traditions of China Confucian Daoist and the multiple varieties of Buddhist as well as those of Mongolia Khotan and even Shambhala The Crystal Mirror of Philosophical Systems is unusual too in its concern not just to describe and analyze doctrines but to trace the historical development of the various traditions The Crystal Mirror of Philosophical Systems is an eloquent and erudite presentation exploring the religious history and philosophical systems of an array of Asian Cultures and offering evidence that the serious and sympathetic study of the history of religions has not been a monopoly of Western scholarship The Crystal Mirror of Philosophical Systems Blo-bzang-chos-kyi-nyi-ma (Thu'u-bkwan III), 2009-04 The Crystal Mirror of Philosophical Systems by Thuken Losang Ch ky i Nyima 1737 1802 is probably the widest ranging account of religious philosophies ever written in pre modern Tibet Thuken was a cosmopolitan Buddhist monk from Amdo Mongol by heritage Tibetan in education and equally comfortable in a central Tibetan monastery or at the imperial court in Beijing Like most texts on philosophical systems his Crystal Mirror covers the major schools of India both non Buddhist and Buddhist but then goes on to discuss in detail the entire range of Tibetan traditions as well with separate chapters on the Nyingma Kadam Kagy Shij Sakya Jonang Geluk and B n Not resting there Thuken goes on to describe the major traditions of China Confucian Daoist and Buddhist as well as those of Mongolia Khotan and Shambhala The Crystal Mirror is unusual too in its concern not just to describe and analyze doctrines but to trace the historical development of the various traditions All this makes the Crystal Mirror an eloquent erudite and informative textbook on the religious history and philosophical systems of an array of Asian cultures and provides evidence that serious and sympathetic study of the history of religions has not been a monopoly of Western scholarship Dakini's Warm Breath Judith Simmer-Brown, 2002-12-10 A fresh interpretation of the dakini a Tibetan Buddhist symbol of the feminine that will appeal to practitioners interested in goddess worship female spirituality and Tantric Buddhism The primary emblem of the feminine in Tibetan Buddhism is the dakini or sky dancer a semi wrathful spirit woman who manifests in visions dreams and meditation experiences Western scholars and interpreters of the dakini influenced by Jungian psychology and feminist goddess theology have shaped a contemporary critique of Tibetan Buddhism in which the dakini is seen as a psychological shadow a feminine savior or an objectified product of patriarchal fantasy According to Judith Simmer Brown who writes from the point of view of an experienced practitioner of Tibetan Buddhism such interpretations are inadequate In the spiritual journey of the meditator

Simmer Brown demonstrates the dakini symbolizes levels of personal realization the sacredness of the body both female and male the profound meeting point of body and mind in meditation the visionary realm of ritual practice and the empty spacious qualities of mind itself When the meditator encounters the dakini living spiritual experience is activated in a nonconceptual manner by her direct gaze her radiant body and her compassionate revelation of reality Grounded in the author's personal encounter with the dakini this unique study will appeal to both male and female spiritual seekers interested in goddess worship women's spirituality and the tantric tradition

Illusion's Game Chogyam Trungpa, 1994-06-28 In what he calls a 200 percent potent teaching Ch gyam Trungpa reveals how the spiritual path is a raw and rugged unlearning process that draws us away from the comfort of conventional expectations and conceptual attitudes toward a naked encounter with reality The tantric paradigm for this process is the story of the Indian master Naropa 1016-1100 who is among the enlightened teachers of the Kagyu lineage of the Tibetan Buddhism Naropa was the leading scholar at Nalanda the Buddhist monastic university when he embarked upon the lonely and arduous path to enlightenment After a series of daunting trials he was prepared to receive the direct transmission of the awakened state of mind from his guru Tilopa Teachings that he received including those known as the six doctrines of Naropa have been passed down in the lineages of Tibetan Buddhism for a millennium Trungpa's commentary shows the relevance of Naropa's extraordinary journey for today's practitioners who seek to follow the spiritual path Naropa's story makes it possible to delineate in very concrete terms the various levels of spiritual development that lead to the student's readiness to meet the teacher's mind Trungpa thus opens to Western students of Buddhism the path of devotion and surrender to the guru as the embodiment and representative of reality
