dies but our ego and mind go on living This same ego finds a new womb This same ego troubled by new desires again starts off on the journey Even before leaving behind one body it is already eager for another This death is not the real death

Earth's Wild Music Kathleen Dean Moore, 2021-02-16 At once joyous and somber this thoughtful gathering of new and selected essays spans Kathleen Dean Moore's distinguished career as a tireless advocate for environmental activism in the face of climate change In this meditation on the music of the natural world Moore celebrates the call of loons howl of wolves bellow of whales laughter of children and shriek of frogs even as she warns of the threats against them Each group of essays moves as Moore herself has been moved from celebration to lamentation to bewilderment and finally to the determination to act in defense of wild songs and the creatures who sing them Music is the shivering urgency and exuberance of life ongoing In a time of terrible silencing Moore asks who will forgive us if we do not save nature's songs
