Glossary and Introduction by L Wiener Yiddish or Judeo German is a group of dialects spoken by the Jews of German origin in Russia Austria and Roumania Originally not differing from the local dialects of the Middle Rhine it has incorporated in the diaspora a large number of Slavic and Hebrew words so as to become unintelligible to the average German reader To neutralize this difficulty to a certain extent Mr Rosenfeld s language which belongs to the Lithuanian variety of Judeo German has been presented in this book as far as practicable in the orthography of the literary German The apparent discrepancy in the rhymes thus produced will disappear if the following is observed The consonants have all their German values and is like French j The vowels are nearly all short so that u ie i are equal to German i similarly a o eh ee are like G short e The G long e is represented by oe and in Slavic and Hebrew words also by ee Ei and eu are pronounced like G ei in mein while i is equal to G ee and o are G short o au sounds more like G ou and au and o resemble G oi The Slavic and Hebrew words are spelled phonetically and the latter differ consequently from the transliterated forms in scientific works About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Cover An Archive of the Catastrophe Jennifer Cazenave, 2019-06-01 Comprehensive analysis of 220 hours of outtakes that impels us to reexamine our assumptions about a crucial Holocaust documentary Claude Lanzmann's 1985 magnum opus Shoah is a canonical documentary on the Holocaust and in film history Over the course of twelve years Lanzmann gathered 230 hours of location filming and interviews with survivors witnesses and perpetrators which he condensed into a 9 hour film The unused footage was scattered and inaccessible for years before it was restored and digitized by the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum In An Archive of the Catastrophe Jennifer Cazenave presents the first comprehensive study of this collection She argues that the outtakes pose a major challenge to the representational and theoretical paradigms produced by the documentary while offering new meanings of Shoah and of Holocaust testimony writ large They lend fresh insight into issues raised by the film including questions of resistance rescue refugees and above all gender Lanzmann's twenty hours of interviews with women make up a mere ten minutes of the finished documentary As a rare instance of outtakes preserved during the predigital era of cinema this unused footage challenges us to establish a new critical framework for understanding how documentaries are constructed and reshapes the way we view this key Holocaust film Cazenave's immense work of scholarship and reflection offers an intimate and exacting account of the way Lanzmann's approach to the project shifted and changed over the years of its creation Never before has there been a more insightful study of the evolution of his thinking I believe that any scholar who has worked on this film will agree

Stuart Liebman editor of Claude Lanzmann's Shoah Key Essays This monumental book will profoundly change our understanding of Shoah and Lanzmann's highly influential shaping of the Holocaust narrative Cazenave reveals that the significance of Shoah is not only found in what is in it but perhaps more importantly what was omitted from it
