Then John H Evans, 2021-02-15 There is a magic to music a feeling created that removes one from the humdrum constraints of everyday life to a wonderful make believe world where as famous lyricist E Y Yip Harburg put it in Over the Rainbow troubles melt like lemon drops and dreams really do come true In this book you ll meet the men of the early twentieth century who wrote the most wonderful creative music the world has ever known Their music was matched by the brilliance of the lyricists who were indeed the poets of the modern age These men created a superb anthology of popular music a canon that today is justifiably known as the Great American Songbook May It Fill Your Soul Timothy Rice, 1994-07-13 In this vivid musical ethnography Timothy Rice documents and interprets the history of folk music song and dance in Bulgaria over a seventy year period of dramatic change From 1920 to 1989 Bulgaria changed from a nearly medieval village society to a Stalinist planned industrial economy to a chaotic mix of capitalist and socialist markets and cultures In the context of this history Rice brings Bulgarian folk music to life by focusing on the biography of the Varimezov family including the musician Kostadin and his wife Todora a singer Combining interviews with his own experiences of learning how to play sing and dance Bulgarian folk music Rice presents one of the most detailed accounts of traditional aural learning processes in the ethnomusicological literature Using a combination of traditionally dichotomous musicological and ethnographic approaches Rice tells the story of how individual musicians learned their tradition how they lived it during the pre Communist era of family farming how the tradition changed with industrialization brought under Communism and finally how it flourished and evolved in the recent unstable political climate This work complete with a compact disc and numerous illustrations and musical examples contributes not only to ethnomusicological theory and method but also to our understanding of Slavic folklore Eastern European anthropology and cultural processes in Socialist states      Franklin Square Song Collection,1881 This collection contains compositions for which no composer is named and compositions by Abt Auber Balfe M W Barrows Bellini de Beriot C W Bliss P P the elder Bradbury Bruce M Converse Cooper G Doane G W Donizetti Dun F Dwight T Dykes Eckert Esser Evans J M Ewing Faber F N Flotow Franc G Geibel Glover C W Glover S von Gluck Gould J E Hall W B Havergal W H Haydn F J Haydn J M Herold F Lindsay M Lover S Lyte E O Mason L Matz Molloy J L Monk W H Moore T Mozart Muloch Miss D M N geli Nairne Lady Normino Offenbach Phillips P de Pinna J Rimbult E F Root Rossini Rouget de Lisle Schumann R Sherwin Silcher Stevenson Stockhausen Taubert Unseld Wagner R Wallace W V Webbe von Weber Weimar Werner Wesley C Wilhelm C Woodbury Wrighton Zundel      Song of the Second Wind Samuel Stillmore,2007-09-19 He grew up in a hopeful time But lately Jesse hasn t been feeling too hopeful Once he was young and unwavering He searched for things that were lasting and true But somewhere along the line he had given up the chase Maybe he was too old for it now Or maybe it was time for a second try Jesse is at work on the morning of his fifty second birthday when he receives an unexpected email from a long lost friend that sends him slipping out the back door of his office building without a word to anyone In this lyrical tale of renewal Jesse retraces the paths of his youthful wandering from the deserts of Tucson to the hills of San Francisco and back to his hometown in Kansas Along the way he rediscovers many of the beliefs that were once essential to him and finds once more the possibility of wonder Song of the Second Wind is the story of one man s journey to a new understanding      Against Common Sense: Teaching and Learning Toward Social Justice Kevin K. Kumashiro,2024-06-03 What does it mean to teach for social justice Drawing on his own classroom experiences leading author and educator Kevin K Kumashiro examines various aspects of anti oppressive teaching and learning and their implications for six different subject areas and various grade levels Celebrating 20 years as a go to resource for K 12 teachers and teacher educators this 4th edition of the bestselling Against Common Sense Teaching and Learning Toward Social Justice features An expanded introduction that examines teaching in today s context of censorship and attacks on diversity democracy and teaching truth New sections on teacher preparation social studies reading and writing and the arts Updated lists of resources in every chapter Graphics teacher responses and discussion questions to enhance comprehension and help translate theory into practice across the disciplines Compelling and accessible the 4th edition of Against Common Sense continues to offer readers the tools they need to begin teaching against their commonsensical assumptions and toward democracy and justice      25 for 25 Phillips Craig & Dean,2017-05-09 Behind the music that has shaped an expressed a generation s faith Very few artists have had as wide spread an impact on faith of other Christians as Phillips Craig Dean For

Bodies of Song Linda Hess, 2015 Kabir was a great iconoclastic mystic poet of fifteenth century North India his poems were composed orally written down by others in manuscripts and books and transmitted through song Scholars and translators usually attend to written collections but these present only a partial picture of the Kabir who has remained vibrantly alive through the centuries mostly in oral forms Entering the worlds of singers and listeners in rural Madhya Pradesh Bodies of Song combines ethnographic and textual study in exploring how oral transmission and performance shape the content and interpretation of vernacular poetry in North India The book investigates textual scholars study of oral performative traditions in a milieu where texts move simultaneously via oral written audio video recorded and electronic pathways As texts and performances are always socially embedded Linda Hess brings readers into the lives of those who sing hear celebrate revere and dispute about Kabir Bodies of Song is rich in stories of individuals and families villages and towns religious and secular organizations castes and communities Dialogue between religious spiritual Kabir and social political Kabir is a continuous theme throughout the book ambiguously located between Hindu and Muslim cultures Kabir rejected religious identities pretensions and hypocrisies But even while satirizing the religious he composed stunning poetry of religious experience and psychological insight A weaver by trade Kabir also criticized caste and other inequalities and today serves as an icon for Dalits and all who strive to remove caste prejudice and oppression

A Song to Sing, a Life to Live Don Saliers, Emily Saliers, 2019-02-01 Celebrating the spirit of song In A Song to Sing a Life to Live Don and Emily Saliers help readers see the connections between Saturday night music and Sunday morning music by exploring the spiritual dimensions of music itself They tell the stories of their own lives in music and they share what they have learned and observed about the power of music in human life They help us appreciate the joy of music and also how music carries us into places of sorrow where we must go if we are to live with honesty about ourselves and compassion for others This book is for churchgoers and spiritual seekers alike Music is described in terms of spiritual practice it has the power to embrace those who are deeply immersed in the life of Christian faith and speak to those who are spiritual but may question formal religion The book explores a wide variety of musical traditions and offers an invitation to embrace a broader and deeper vision of the power of music and the spiritual dimensions of attentive listening This is a beautiful expression of music as many things healer gift symbol of freedom and community and agent of change Mary Chapin Carpenter     The Wished For Country Wayne Karlin,2002-09-01 The Wished For Country is set during the founding of the Maryland colony in the mid seventeenth century It traces the entwined lives of James Hallam a carpenter and indentured servant Ezekiel an African slave brought to Maryland from Barbados and Tawzin a Piscataway Indian kidnapped to England when a child and now back in America While Hallam goes on to become a soldier and a player in the politics of the Maryland colony Ezekiel and Tawzin become the center of an outcast group of Blacks poor whites and Native Americans who find themselves striving to reinvent themselves and their world The stories of these three men the women who love them and the community they form bring to vivid life the experiences of those who came to America pulled by a dream of what could be shaped from an emptiness that embodied promise of those who were unwillingly brought to be the instruments of that dream and of those who saw the shape of their world forever changed by the coming of the Europeans     The Surprising Grace of Disappointment John Koessler,2013-04-16 Disappointment is a feeling everyone knows well failed relationships buyer s remorse unmet expectations and so on In a broken world disappointment surrounds us But Christians know that Jesus will never disappoint us right Wrong John Koessler explains how Jesus disappoints everyone He never fails but he does disappoint We come to Jesus with false expectations demanding or expecting things he doesn t promise and then when he doesn t deliver we are disappointed by Him But Koessler explains how this can be the best thing for us even though it doesn t feel good He describes how this sort of disappointment takes our wrong expectations and sets them straight bringing us closer to Jesus and into a deeper understanding of his very surprising grace This book is a wonderful resource for people struggling with life s hard times as well as for counselors or pastors seeking to help others     A Different Voice, a Different Song Caroline Bithell,2014 Caroline Bithell explores the history and significance of the natural voice movement and its culture of open access community choirs weekend workshops and summer camps Founded on the premise that everyone can sing the movement is distinguished from other choral movements by its emphasis on oral transmission and its eclectic repertoire of songs from across the globe     Almost Eden Anita Horrocks,2009-06-05 It is the hot prairie summer of her twelfth year and Elsie is at a crossroads Her beloved mother who is mentally ill has been hospitalized and Elsie thinks that the breakdown is all her fault Mental illness is simply not discussed in Elsie s close knit Mennonite community and she is rudderless Nothing Elsie does seems to go right there s no pleasing her bossy older sister she forgets to feed the cat so her father gives it away she s supposed to watch out for her younger sister but she lets her come home alone from the swimming pool despite the lurking menace of a weird stranger around town and she bargains with God to make her mother well again to no evident avail Elsie's conversations with God her struggle to overcome guilt and her honest desire to prove herself are laced with a wicked wit and clarity of vision Almost Eden is a beautiful portrait of a town a family and a young woman willing to challenge the things that don't make sense to her and to fix the things that don't seem right

The Lieutenant of San Porfirio Joel D. Hirst, 2012-08-06 REVIEWS a passionate literary experience Carlos Alberto Montaner Hirst strives to uncover the hidden roots of underdevelopment amid the legacy of privilege discrimination and injustice He also includes an analysis of why the history of Latin America is one of ongoing frustrations with every so often the rise of a protector savior or leader of the poor who eventually plunges those people into an abyss deeper and worse than what they had before the onset of these vigilantes PanAm Post a tragicomic satire about the Chavista revolution in the tradition of Latin American magical realism fun at times but overall worrying and disquieting particularly as it relates to the future El Universal That is why my new friends the visitor was still speaking Freddy snapped back to the moment I would like to make a special request to you from our Comandante the freely and democratically elected president of Venezuela He is holding a special socialist youth summit where la juventud socialista will come from all over the world to learn the lessons of our Revolucin Pacifica Freddy's heart skipped a beat He looked up into the dark brown eyes of his new hero and was sure that the message was for him alone Please come Take a folleto and if you are interested follow the instructions to sign up And with that the presentation was over The first to jump out of his seat Freddy accosted the speaker with questions The class started to clear out Nobody else seemed interested but Freddy made up for it with his enthusiasm They talked for a long time about the government the political organization and some history Finally Freddy asked about the student movement he'd seen on TV They talk specifically about this one girl Immediately a light-skinned young man with dark hair and a thick accent barged angrily into the classroom How dare you What do you know about it

From the Back of the Line Gloria Ward Wright, 2006-11 From the Back of the Line The Views of a Teenager From the 1960s Civil Rights Movement chronicles the life of a young African American girl who moved from a follower to a leader in human rights Sixteen-year-old Gloria Ward was arrested four times in 1962 for demonstrating against the ills of segregation and racism in her hometown of Albany Georgia With her teenage friends and classmates she marched behind Dr Martin Luther King Jr Dr Ralph David Abernathy Sr Rev Charles Sherrod the Honorable Andrew Young the late Rev Samuel Wells and other older leaders In a widely circulated newspaper article Gloria was criticized by a white Albany teenager Kay Smith who wasn't shy about expressing her racist opinions Kay called Gloria a pawn and a fool for her involvement in the demonstrations Kay eventually came to see civil rights in a different light Although they never met as teenagers Kay often wondered about Gloria and what had happened to her later in life Thirty-five years after the newspaper article ran Kay found Gloria through a mutual friend and apologized for her racist views and statements Today the two women are close friends Their story of forgiveness and friendship is just one part of Gloria's remarkable life story as human rights activist teacher wife mother and pastor From the Back of the Line describes Dr Wright s experiences growing up during the civil rights era and moving from the back of the line to leadership positions She has written this book because she wants young people to know their civil rights history and to understand that they can and should move forward Her story is told with passion candor and light humor She tells it like it was how she saw and participated in history From the Back of the Line The book also contains photographs and an appendix containing quotations from notable civil rights leaders a summary of the 1964 Civil Rights Act and recommended reading Awaiting The Dawn Vladimir Husaruk,2022-04-04 In addition to the atrocities committed by the gestapo against the Jews thousands of Christians were also arrested and enslaved in German work camps In 1944 while on a train from Cracow Poland to Vienna Austria Rev Vladimir Husaruk was arrested for being a religious agitator He was carrying a suitcase with fifty two New Testaments to distribute to Slavic Christians who had been arrested and enslaved by the German gestapo He spent the remainder of WWII in two prisons including Montelupich known for its tortures and executions and two Nazi concentration camps Gross Rosen and Hersbruck before being released by American soldiers in April 1945 His story of incredible faith and resilience in the face of death starvation and inhumane treatment culminates in a three hundred mile bicycle ride through Germany to be reunited once again with his family The Gospel According To The Sons Of God A Memoir pretending to be An Informal History Kevin Don Levellie,2014-09-12 What was it like to be in a Bible College music group What was it like to travel with Ruben Ratzlaff Dallas Meserve Warren Bell Jim Crain and Hal and Evelyn Martin What was the Al Hammond Song Where did Eileen Alder think we should sing I m sure you have never in your life wondered about those things but they re answered in this book This is a book about my experience in a Southern Gospel Quartet in my home church and at San Jose Bible College It s about one of the most intense formative periods in my life It s about an era a church a school a style of music and how five over the top fellows learned to minister together It also tells the most embarrassing moment of my life but you have to buy the book and read it to find that one out
