Sons Of Earth A Novel:

Sons of the Gods, Children of Earth Peter W. Rose, 2019-03-15 In this ambitious and venturesome book Peter W Rose applies the insights of Marxist theory to a number of central Greek literary and philosophical texts He explores major points in the trajectory from Homer to Plato where the ideology of inherited excellence beliefs about descent from gods or heroes is elaborated and challenged Rose offers subtle and penetrating new readings of Homer's Iliad and Odyssey Pindar's Tenth Pythian Ode Aeschylus's Oresteia Sophokles Philoktetes and Plato's Republic Rose rejects the view of art as a mere reflection of social and political reality a view that is characteristic not only of most Marxist but of most historically oriented treatments of classical literature He applies instead a Marxian hermeneutic derived from the work of the Frankfurt School and Fredric Jameson His readings focus on illuminating a politics of form within the text while responding to historically specific social political and economic realities Each work he asserts both reflects contemporary conflicts over wealth power and gender roles and constitutes an attempt to transcend the status quo by projecting an ideal community Following Marx Rose maintains that critical engagement with the limitations of the utopian dreams of the past is the only means to the realization of freedom in the present Classicists and their students literary theorists philosophers comparatists and Marxist critics will find Sons of the Gods Children of Earth challenging reading Science Fiction and Fantasy Literature, Vol 1 R.

The Earth Story in the New Testament Norman C. Habel,Vicky Balabanski,2002-10-01 The Earth Bible is an international project including volumes on ecojustice readings of major sections of the Bible The basic aims of the Earth Bible project are to develop ecojustice principles appropriate to an Earth hermeneutic for interpreting the Bible and for promoting justice and healing for Earth to publish these interpretations as contributions to the current debate on ecology ecoethics and ecotheology to provide a responsible forum within which the suppressed voice of Earth may be heard and impulses for healing Earth may be generated The project explores text and tradition from the perspective of Earth employing a set of ecojustice principles developed in consultation with ecologists suspecting that the text and or its interpreters may be anthropocentric and not geocentric but searching to retrieve alternative traditions that hear the voice of Earth and value Earth as more than a human instrument The lead article in Volume V is a reflection in responses to the ecojustice principles employed in the hermeneutic of the project Several articles offer insights into New Testament texts that seem to devalue Earth in favour of heaven The final article by Barbara Rossing challenges the popular apocalyptic notion that in the new age Earth will be terminated A feature of this volume is a dialogue between Norman Habel who argues that John One seems to devalue Earth and two respondents Elaine Wainwright and Vicky Balabanski who is coeditor of this volume with Norman Habel 1
