Moving Modernism Nell Andrew, 2020 The emergence of modern dance and the early history of cinema ran concurrent with the European avant garde s development of pictorial abstraction in the first decades of the 20th century However many assume that modernist abstraction resulted from a century of natural autonomous evolution to painting styles and tastes In Moving Modernism author Nell Andrew challenges this assumption By examining dance and film created during this period she argues that performative modes of art created the link between bodily movement and movement depicted in modernist paintings In a seeming paradox dance and film durational arts involving real bodies in space participated in the development of abstract art With archival material collected in North America and Europe Moving Modernism resurfaces lost performances identifies working methods and establishes the circles of aesthetic influence and reception for avant garde dance pioneers and experimental film makers from the turn of the century to the interwar period Reexamining the motivation that fueled the emergence of abstraction Andrew claims that painters sought meaning not only in the material and formal picture but also in temporal and sensorial experience Andrew looks at major figures and intellectual movements including Lo e Fuller and Symbolism Valentine de Saint Point and the Cubo Futurist and neo Symbolist movements and early cinematic abstraction from Edison and the Lumi res to Hans Richter and Marcel Duchamp Close examinations of each figure show that theatrical display embodied self projection and kinesthetic desire are not necessarily in opposition to pictorial abstraction in fact they expand our understanding of the urges that created modern art

The Life of Forms in Art Brandon Taylor, 2020-10-01 What is form in modern art How could a work of art achieve its organic life in a world increasingly dominated by mechanism by new technology In this new book Brandon Taylor proposes that biology and the life sciences themselves supplied many of the analogies and metaphors by which modern artists were guided For the creative giants of the period Picasso Mir Kandinsky Strzeminiski Dal Arp Motherwell and Pollock as well as less known figures such as Taeuber Erni and Kobro questions of living form loomed large in studio conversation in the press and in the writings of the artists themselves In a book rich in new research and fresh thinking a well known art historian proposes six modalities of organic and vital life that pervade the radical experiments of modern art the organic the biomorphic the ambiguous the monstrous the dialectical and the liquid
