Soshite Waga Sokoku:

Asia and Postwar Japan Simon Avenell, 2023-12-04 War defeat and the collapse of empire in 1945 touched every aspect of postwar Japanese society profoundly shaping how the Japanese would reconstruct national identity and reengage with the peoples of Asia While America offered a vision of re genesis after cataclysmic ruin Asia exposed the traumata of perpetration and the torment of ethnic responsibility Obscured in the shadows of a resurgent postwar Japan lurked a postimperial specter whose haunting presence both complicated and confounded the spiritual rehabilitation of the nation Asia and Postwar Japan examines Japanese deimperialization from 1945 until the early twenty first century It focuses on the thought and activism of progressive activists and intellectuals as they struggled to overcome rigid preconceptions about Asia as they grappled with the implications of postimperial responsibility and as they forged new regional solidarities and Asian imaginaries Simon Avenell reveals the critical importance of Asia in postwar Japanese thought activism and politics Asia as a symbolic geography Asia as a space for grassroots engagement and ultimately Asia as an aporia of identity and the source of a new politics of hope

Ordinary People, Extraordinary Lives Jackson H. Bailey, 1991-10-01 Tanohata in the 1950s was an isolated fishing village in the Tohoku region of Japan Life there was so miserable that those who could leave did and those who could not stayed on in a state of demoralization By the 1980s however Tanohata had not only joined the mainstream of Japanese culture and economic life but had done so with an adroitness that attracted national notice The story of that dramatic transformation written from the perspective of one who has both observed and participated in the changes for the last 20 years brings into dramatic focus what is happening throughout Japan in the 20th century Impoverished Spirit Katsuichi Honda, 1993 National Union Catalog, 1973 Includes entries for maps and atlases Subject Catalog Library of Congress, 1976

Encyclopedia of Diasporas Melvin Ember, Carol R. Ember, Ian Skoggard, 2004-11-30 Immigration is a topic that is as important among anthropologists as it is the general public Almost every culture has experienced adaptation and assimilation when immigrating to a new country and culture usually leaving for what is perceived as a better life Not only does this diaspora change the country of adoption but also the country of origin Many large nations in the world have absorbed and continue to absorb large numbers of immigrants The foreseeable future will see a continuation of large scale immigration as many countries experience civil war and secessionist pressures Currently there is no reference work that describes the impact upon the immigrants and the immigrant societies relevant to the world's cultures and provides an overview of important topics in the world's diasporas The encyclopedia consists of two volumes covering three main sections Diaspora Overviews covers over 20 ethnic groups that have experienced voluntary or forced immigration These essays discuss the history behind the social economic and political reasons for leaving the original countries and the cultures in the new places Topics discusses the impact and assimilation that the immigrant cultures experience in their adopted cultures including the arts they bring the struggles they face and some of the cities that are in the forefront of receiving immigrant cultures Diaspora Communities include over 60 portraits of specific diaspora communities Each portrait follows a standard outline to facilitate comparisons The Encyclopedia of Diasporas can be used both to gain a general understanding of immigration and immigrants and to find out about particular cultures topics and communities It will prove of great value to researchers and students curriculum developers teachers and government officials It brings together the disciplines of anthropology social studies political studies international studies and immigrant and immigration studies
