Soul Survivor Presents Upwardly Mobile:

Consumer Behavior in Action Geoffrey Paul Lantos, 2015-01-28 Consumer Behavior in Action is a down to earth highly engaging and thorough introduction to consumer behavior. It goes further than other consumer behavior textbooks to generate student interest and activity through extensive use of in class and written applications exercises. Each chapter presents several exercises in self contained units each with its own applications. Learning objectives, background and context are provided in an easy to digest format with liberal use of lists and bullet points. Also included in each chapter are a key concepts list, review questions and a solid summary to help initiate further student research. The author's practical focus and clear conversational writing style combined with an active learning approach make this textbook the student friendly choice for courses on consumer behavior.

Bull City Survivor Simon Partner, Emma Johnston, 2013-07-20 Emma Johnston a pseudonym is an African American resident of Durham North Carolina whose son was brutally murdered in 2007. Combining the voices of Emma and her coauthor Simon Partner a professor at Duke University the book recounts the postwar history of one of the South's fastest growing communities through the eyes of one of its most disadvantaged residents. In the process the book attempts to shed light on the social and economic conditions that led to the murder of Emma's son one of 25 to 30 people many of them African American young men who fall victim to gun violence each year in Durham.

The Pre-occupation of Postcolonial Studies Fawzia Afzal-Khan, Kalpana Seshadri-Crooks, 2000 The Pre Occupation of Postcolonial Studies contains essays by both leading figures and younger scholars engaged in the field of postcolonial studies. In this state of the field reader editors Fawzia Afzal Khan and Kalpana Seshadri Crooks have created a dynamic forum for contributors from a variety of theoretical and disciplinary vantage points to question both the limits and the limitations of postcolonial thought. Since it burst on the academic scene as the hot new disciplinary field during the final decade of the twentieth century postcolonial studies has faced criticism from those who question its troubling trajectories its sometimes suspect epistemological and pedagogical methods and its relatively narrow focus. With diverse essays that emerge from such disciplines as South Asian, Latin American, Arab and Jewish studies this volume responds to skeptics and adherers alike addressing not only the broad theoretical issues at stake within the field but also the position of the field itself within the academy as well as its relationship to modern, postmodern and Marxist discourses. Contributors offer critiques on ahistorical and universalizing tendencies in postcolonial work and confront the need for scholars to attend to issues of class ideology and the effects of neocolonial practices. Seeking to broaden the field's traditionally literary spectrum of methodologies these essayists take up large thematic issues to examine specific sites of colonial activities with all of their historical, political and cultural significance. Closing the volume is an insightful interview with Homi Bhabha in which he discusses postcolonial studies in the context of contemporary cultural politics and theory. The Pre Occupation of Postcolonial Studies not only offers an overview of the discipline but also pushes and pulls at the edges of postcolonial studies offering a comprehensive view of the field s diversity of thought and envisioning clear pathways for its future Contributors Fawzia Afzal Khan Ali Behdad Homi Bhabha Daniel Boyarin Neil Larsen Saree Makdisi Joseph Massad Walter Mignolo Hamid Naficy Ngugi Wa Thingo Timothy B Powell R Radhakrishnan Bruce Robbins Kalpana Seshadri Crooks Ella Shohat Rajeswari Sunder Rajan Dissent ,1987
