The Sound of Falling Snow Annabel Stehli, 2004 Annabel Stehli is the author of the celebrated The Sound of a Miracle the story of her own daughter Georgiana's experience with autism and her recovery As a result of that book Annabel received letters from hundreds of parents who were facing similar questions with their own children As a result Annabel compiled many of their stories in Dancing in the Rain which has given hope to thousands who have experienced autism in their own families Now many years later Annabel has edited a new volume Sound of Falling Snow with stories about recovery from autism and related disorders These stories fourteen in all written by parents should serve to inspire and encourage parents who may feel that they are fighting the battle alone

Perspectives on Individual Differences Affecting Therapeutic Change in Communication Disorders Amy L. Weiss, 2012-12-06 This volume examines the ramifications of individual differences in therapy outcomes for a wide variety of communication disorders In an era where evidence based practice is the clinical profession's watchword each chapter attacks this highly relevant issue from a somewhat different perspective In some areas of communication disorders considering the variance brought by the client into the therapeutic mix has a healthy history whereas in others the notion of how individual client profiles mesh with therapy outcomes has rarely been considered Through the use of research results case study descriptions and speculation the contributors have creatively woven what we know and what we have yet to substantiate into an interesting collection of summaries useful for therapy programming and designing clinical research
