WHALE ATTACK TOM Bennett, 2015-05-05 Yachts sailing the oceans are regularly sunk by Whales Lives at sea are at risk and it is an increasing problem This book explores the facts and gives a few tips on how to avoid

Whales when racing or cruising the oceans and how to minimize the event of Whales attacking your vessel The Empty Sea Ilaria Perissi, Ugo Bardi, 2021-02-12 The Blue Economy is used to describe all of the economic activities related to the sea with a special emphasis on sustainability Traditional activities such as fisheries but also undersea mining tourism and scientific research are included as well as the phenomenal growth of aquaculture during the past decade All of these activities and the irresistible prospect of another new frontier has led to enthusiastic and most likely overenthusiastic assessments of the possibilities to exploit the sea to feed the world provide low cost energy become a new source of minerals and other future miracles This book makes sense of these trends and of the future of the blue economy by following our remote ancestors who gradually discovered the sea and its resources describing the so called fisherman's curse or why fishermen have always been poor explaining why humans tend to destroy the resources on which we depend and assessing the realistic expectations for extracting resources from the sea Although the sea is not so badly overexploited as the land our demands on ecosystem services are already above the oceans sustainability limits Some new ideas including fishing down for untapped resources such as plankton could lead to the collapse of the entire marine ecosystem How Neanderthals crossed the sea in canoes how it was possible for five men on a small boat to kill a giant whale what kind of oil the virgins of the Gospel put into their lamps how a professor of mathematics Vito Volterra discovered the equations of fishing why it has become so easy to be stung by a jellyfish while swimming in the sea and how to play Moby Dick a simple board game that simulates the overexploitation of natural resources are just some of the questions that you will be able to answer after reading this engaging and insightful book about the rapidly expanding relationship between humanity and the sea

Listening to Whales Alexandra Morton, 2008-12-30 A warm energetic memoir Publishers Weekly starred review and an impassioned study of the profound connection between humans and whales from an award winning marine researcher Morton's descriptions of the whales lives and their haunting underwater communications are so vivid that they will remain with you long after you have read the last eloquent page JANE GOODALL ONE OF THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR'S BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR For over three decades Alexandra Morton has been at the forefront of whale and dolphin research dedicating her life to the study of orcas also known as killer whales In Listening to Whales she shares spellbinding stories about her career and what she has learned from and about these magnificent mammals While working at Marineland in California in the late 1970s Alexandra pioneered the recording of orca sounds by dropping a hydrophone into the tank of two killer whales She recorded the varied language of mating childbirth and even grief after the birth of a stillborn calf At the same time she made the startling observation that the whales were inventing wonderful synchronized movements a behavior that was soon recognized as a defining characteristic of orca society In 1984 Alexandra moved to a remote bay in British Columbia to continue her research with wild orcas Her recordings of the whales have led her to a deeper understanding of the mystery of whale echolocation the vocal communication that enables the mammals to find their way in the dark sea

Affecting and surprising Listening to Whales will open your eyes anew to the wonders of the natural world      The Sound of Whales David Charles MacLean, 1996 The Sound of Whales is a lyric comedy about language our obsessive reliance upon it and how linear thought can inhibit understanding David MacLean's play has its roots in his personal experience in dealing with governmental educational and medical bureaucracies The frustration the playwright expresses toward these institutions is balanced by the love and devotion a father feels for his son The Sound of Whales is at once tender and angry intimate and universal Robert Garfat from A Director's Analysis Praise for The Sound of Whales ambitious poetic and imaginative with moments of striking honesty The Vancouver Sun draws picture after picture in its attempt to communicate the ineffable The Georgia Straight      Carbon Play Robert William Falls, 2017-10-10 An insider's look at the complex inspiring and surprisingly entertaining world of international negotiations technology and diplomacy relating to the carbon industry environmental management and climate mitigation Carbon Play follows Robert Falls's unique and extraordinary journey in the worlds of academia politics and corporate big energy With a career that began in marine biology and fisheries management Robert became a respected environmental professional dealing with national energy and climate policies frequently meeting with renowned thinkers such as Freeman Dyson Arthur C Clarke David Suzuki Patrick Moore and Al Gore in a quest to deal with the gaping chasms between climate science political governance and global energy interests From his position at the crossroads of science the energy industry the environmental movement government policy and carbon trading Robert Falls has written 15 entertaining and enlightening stories that will be enjoyed by those with an interest in the environment who seek fresh perspectives and insights not normally found in books dealing with climate change or environmental issues

Resonant Matter Lutz Koepnick, 2020-12-10 In Resonant Matter Lutz Koepnick considers contemporary sound and installation art as a unique laboratory of hospitality amid inhospitable times Inspired by Ragnar Kjartansson's nine channel video installation The Visitors 2012 the book explores resonance the ability of objects to be affected by the vibrations of other objects as a model of art's fleeting promise to make us coexist with things strange and other In a series of nuanced readings Koepnick follows the echoes of distant unexpected and unheard sounds in twenty first century art to reflect on the attachments we pursue to sustain our lives and the walls we need to tear down to secure possible futures The book's nine chapters approach The Visitors from ever different conceptual angles while bringing it into dialogue with the work of other artists and musicians such as Lawrence Abu Hamdan Guillermo Galindo Mischa Kuball Philipp Lachenmann Alvin Lucier Teresa Margolles Carsten Nicolai Camille Norment Susan Philipsz David Rothenberg Juliana Snapper and Tanya Tagaq With this book Koepnick situates resonance as a vital concept of contemporary art criticism and sound studies His analysis encourages us not only to expand our understanding of the role of sound in art of sound art but to attune our critical encounter with art to art's own resonant thinking      Postdigital Play and Global Education Kerry Dixon, Karin Murris, Joanne Peers, Theresa Giorza, Chanique Lawrence, 2024-09-24 Postdigital Play and Global Education Reconfiguring

Not on My Watch Alexandra Morton, 2021-03-23 NATIONAL BESTSELLER Alexandra Morton has been called the Jane Goodall of Canada because of her passionate thirty year fight to save British Columbia s wild salmon Her account of that fight is both inspiring in its own right and a roadmap of resistance Alexandra Morton came north from California in the early 1980s following her first love the northern resident orca In remote Echo Bay in the Broughton Archipelago she found the perfect place to settle into all she had ever dreamed of a lifetime of observing and learning what these big brained mammals are saying to each other She was lucky enough to get there just in time to witness a place of true natural abundance and learned how to thrive in the wilderness as a scientist and a single mother Then in 1989 industrial aquaculture moved into the region chasing the whales away Her fisherman neighbours asked her if she would write letters on their behalf to government explaining the damage the farms were doing to the fisheries and one thing led to another Soon Alex had shifted her scientific focus to documenting the infectious diseases and parasites that pour from the ocean farm pens of Atlantic salmon into the migration routes of wild Pacific salmon and then to proving their disastrous impact on wild salmon and the entire ecosystem of the coast Alex stood against the farms first representing her community then alone and at last as part of an uprising that built around her as ancient Indigenous governance resisted a province and a country that wouldn t obey their own court rulings She has used her science many acts of protest and the legal system in her unrelenting efforts to save wild salmon and ultimately the whales a story that reveals her own doggedness and bravery but also shines a bright light on the ways other humans doggedly resist the truth Here she brilliantly calls those humans to account for the sake of us all      Thousand-Mile Song David Rothenberg,2010-05 In Thousand Mile Song musician and philosopher David Rothenberg uses the enigma of whale sounds to explore whether we can truly understand nonhuman minds Interviewing scholars around the world as they attempt to decipher underwater music Rothenberg tells the story of scientists and artists confronting an unknown as vast as the ocean Along the way he plays his clarinet live with whales in their native habitats from Russia to Hawaii making interspecies music that appears on the included CD Richly detailed and deeply entertaining Thousand Mile Song is an imaginative look at the most intriguing creatures of the ocean      Federal Register ,2013      Exploring Animal Behavior Through Sound: Volume 1 Christine Erbe,Jeanette A.
