Telling Ways Australian Womens Experimental Writing:

The Cambridge Guide to Women's Writing in English Lorna Sage,1999-09-30 This Guide aims to consolidate and epitomise the re reading of women s writing that has gone on in the last twenty five years This is an opportunity for stock taking a timely project when so much writing has been rediscovered reclaimed and republished There are entries on writers on individual texts and on general terms genres and movements all printed in a single alphabetical sequence The earliest written documents in medieval English the visionary writings of Julian of Norwich and Margery Kempe are covered in an historical and geographical sweep that takes us up to the present day The book reflects the spread of literacy the history of colonisation and the development of post colonial cultures using and changing the English language The entries are written by contributors from all the countries covered The result is a work of reference with a unique feeling for the vitality wealth and diversity of women s writing

The Writing Experiment Hazel Smith,2020-07-16 A systematic and engaging approach to creative writing Carla Harryman Wayne State University By suggesting that students who are not born poets can yet learn to become good ones Smith performs a very important service Professor Susan M Schultz University of Hawaii This is an impressive book because it covers areas of creative writing practice and theory that have not been covered in published form It links radical practice with radical but better known theory and will appeal to anyone looking for a different approach Robert Sheppard Edge Hill College of Higher Education UK The Writing Experiment demystifies the process of creative writing showing that successful work does not arise from talent or inspiration alone Hazel Smith breaks down writing into incremental stages revealing processes that are often unconscious or unacknowledged and shows how they can become part of a systematic writing strategy The book encourages writers to take an explorative and experimental approach to their work It relates practical strategies for writing to major twentieth century literary and cultural movements including postmodernism Suitable for both beginners and experienced writers The Writing Experiment covers many genres including fiction poetry writing for performance and new media Each chapter is illustrated with extensive examples of both student work and published writing and challenging exercises offer writers at all levels opportunities to develop their skills constraints and sexual politics Literary History and Avant-Garde Poetics in the Antipodes A. J. Carruthers, 2024-03-05

Avant garde poetry in the Antipodes causes all sorts of trouble for literary history It is an avant garde that seems to arrive too late and yet right on time In 1897 Christopher Brennan made his own version of Un Coup de Dés the same year Mallarme published it in Cosmopolis In the 1940s the same period avant gardism was declared dead or fatally injured due to the Ern Malley affair Harry Hooton began writing a significant body of experimental poetry From the 1950s to the 1970s Australian Dada emerged belatedly through figures like Jas H Duke Tristan Tzara had previously sung Aboriginal songs at the Cabaret Voltaire in 1916 First Nations and Migrant poets then began reinventing avant garde poetry in the twentieth and early twenty first centuries This book maintains that such a confounding literary history poses a distinct challenge to the theories of the avant gardes we have become accustomed to and changes our perspective of avant garde time A Companion to Australian Literature Since 1900 Nicholas Birns, Rebecca McNeer, 2007 A fresh twenty first century look at Australian literature in a broad inclusive and multicultural sense Telling Stories , 2021-11-15 The present volume is a highly comprehensive assessment of the postcolonial short story since the thirty six contributions cover most geographical areas concerned Another important feature is that it deals not only with exclusive practitioners of the genre Mansfield Munro but also with well known novelists Achebe Armah Atwood Carey Rushdie so that stimulating comparisons are suggested between shorter and longer works by the same authors In addition the volume is of interest for the study of aspects of orality dialect dance rhythms circularity and trickster figure for instance and of the more or less conflictual relationships between the individual character or implied author and the community Furthermore the marginalized status of women emerges as another major theme both as regards the past for white women settlers or the present for urbanized characters primarily in Africa and India The reader will also have the rare pleasure of discovering Janice Kulik Keefer s Fox her version of what she calls in her commentary displaced autobiography or creative non fiction Lastly an extensive bibliography on the postcolonial short story opens up further possibilities for research Australia for Women Susan Hawthorne, Renate Klein, 1994 Australia is a land full of opportunities but where can you go to find the things that matter to women This book is a guide to the land as well as the diverse culture of women Women s culture in Australia goes back more than 40 000 years and is a rich mosaic of story art and music On the top of this has come the culture of the past 200 years from the British convicts from China from the Pacific from the newer waves of migration and from the women s movement This is reflected in literature theatre the visual arts music circuses and dance Rural and urban women describe the places they know and love they also describe their histories and show something of what lies behind a first impression Contributors featured include Oodgeroo Noonuccal Faith Bandler Portia Robinson Elizabeth Jolley Sara Dowse Janine Haines Dale Spender Ruby Langford Ginibi Kate Llewellyn and Finola Moorhead Feminist Knowledge (RLE Feminist Theory) Sneja Gunew, 2013-05-20 The minority feminist viewpoints have often been submerged in the interests of maintaining a mainstream universal model of feminism

This anthology takes into account the various differences among women while looking at the important areas of feminist struggle. While sisterhood is indeed global it certainly does not mean that all women are required to submerge their specific differences and assimilate to a universal model. Consequently the collection includes essays by leaders in the field of post structuralist enquiry as well as by those immersed in the new spirituality and the social consequences of recent biological research. Other essays reflect the political struggles which continue to be waged with different strategies by socialist and radical feminists and the self searching analyses undertaken by feminists uneasy about their inclusion within educational institutions and the radical new interpretations of sexuality within the cultural domain. The collection begins with a critique of white mainstream feminism emanating from Aboriginal women in Australia. The implications of the critique indicate that there is a pervasive racism within the feminist movement.

Immigrant and Ethnic-Minority Writers since 1945

,2018-07-17 This study analyses how immigrant and ethnic minority writers have challenged the understanding of certain national literatures and have markedly changed them. In other national contexts ideologies and institutions have contained the challenge these writers pose to national literatures. Case studies of the emergence and recognition of immigrant and ethnic minority writing come from fourteen national contexts. These include classical immigration countries such as Canada and the United States countries where immigration accelerated and entered public debate after World War II such as the United Kingdom France and Germany as well as countries rarely discussed in this context such as Brazil and Japan. Finally this study uses these individual analyses to discuss this writing as an international phenomenon.
