Burns,Margaret G. Scroger,1989 Applied Mechanics Reviews ,1966 Electromechanical Sensors and Actuators Ilene J. Busch-Vishniac,2012-12-06 Mechanical engineering an engineering discipline borne of the needs of the industrial revolution is once again asked to do its substantial share in the call for industrial renewal The general call is urgent as we face profound issues of productivity and competitiveness that require engineering solutions among others The Mechanical Engineering Series features graduate texts and research monographs intended to address the need for information in contemporary areas of mechanical engineering The series is conceived as a comprehensive one that covers a broad range of concentrations important to mechanical engineering graduate education and research We are fortunate to have a distinguished roster of consulting editors on the advisory board each an expert in one of the areas of concentration The names of the consulting editors are listed on the facing page of this volume The areas of concentration are applied mechanics biomechanics computational mechanics dynamic systems and control energetics mechanics of materials processing thermal science and tribology I am pleased to present this volume in the Series Electromechanical Sensors and Actuators by Ilene Busch Vishniac The selection of this volume underscores again the interest of the Mechanical Engineering series to provide our readers with topical monographs as well as graduate texts in a wide variety of fields
