Tennyson The Early Poems Studies In English Literature No 41:

Domestic and Heroic in Tennyson's Poetry Donald S. Hair, 1981-12-15 Tennyson shared the assumptions of his age concerning the value of family life and treated the domestic as the source of the heroic in both action and character This book provides a critical examination of these major Victorian themes as they appear in Tennyson's poetry and demonstrates how the poet's assumptions illuminate his use of elegy idyl and epyllion and his treatment of romance Professor Hair analyses In Memoriam the English Idylls The Princess and Idylls of the King he examines Tennyson's view of the family as the model of social order a civilizing influence on the nation and a place where the greater man or hero is nurtured and he reveals how much of Tennyson's poetry explores the link between domestic and heroic He also discusses the patterns into which these pervasive domestic concerns fall with emphasis on the most significant separation and reunions The myth of Demeter and Persephone the Biblical story of Ruth and the Sleeping Beauty fairy tale are all versions of Tennyson's treatment of this pattern The English Idylls and other idylls and epyllia are explored as varying combinations of romance satire tragedy comedy and irony with a detailed analysis of The Princess the most complex of these medleys Idylls of the King wherein the fate of Camelot rests on the marriage of Arthur and Guinevere is treated as the fullest exploration of the link between domestic and heroic Tennyson Research Bulletin Elizabeth Jenkins, 1974 The Education Gazette of the Province of the Cape of Good Hope Cape of Good Hope (South Africa). Ruderman, 2016-04-28 This book radically refigures the conceptual and formal significance of childhood in nineteenth century English poetry By theorizing infancy as a poetics as well as a space of continual beginning Ruderman shows how it allowed poets access to inchoate uncanny and mutable forms of subjectivity and art While recent historicist studies have documented the freshness of experience childhood confers on 19th century poetry and culture this book draws on new formalist and psychoanalytic perspectives to rethink familiar concepts such as immortality the sublime and the death drive as well as forms and genres such as the pastoral the ode and the ballad Ruderman establishes that infancy emerges as a unique structure of feeling simultaneously with new theories of lyric poetry at the end of the eighteenth century He then explores the intertwining of poetic experimentation and infancy in Wordsworth Anna Barbauld Blake Coleridge Erasmus Darwin Sara Coleridge Shelley Matthew Arnold Tennyson and Augusta Webster Each chapter addresses and analyzes a specific moment in a writer's work moments of tenderness or mourning birth or death physical or mental illness when infancy is analogized eulogized or theorized Moving between canonical and archival materials and combining textual and inter textual reading metrical and prosodic analysis and post Freudian psychoanalytic theory the book shows how poetic engagements with infancy anticipate psychoanalytic and phenomenological i.e. modern ways of being in the world Ultimately Ruderman suggests that it is not so much that we return to infancy as that infancy returns obsessively compulsively in us This book shows how by tracking changing attitudes towards the idea of infancy one might also map the emotional political and aesthetic terrain of nineteenth century culture It will be of interest to scholars in the areas of British romanticism and Victorianism as well as 19th century American literature and culture histories of childhood and representations of the child from art historical cultural studies and literary perspectives D B Ruderman s The Idea of Infancy in Nineteenth Century British Poetry Romanticism Subjectivity Form is an interesting contribution to this field and it manages to bring a new perspective to our understanding of Romantic era and Victorian representations of infancy and childhood a supremely exciting book that will be a key work for generations of readers of nineteenth century poetry Isobel Armstrong Birkbeck University of London Victorian Studies 59 4
