The Loneliness Factor:

The Loneliness Factor Ronald Rolheiser, 1988 The Loneliness Factor Ronald Rolheiser, 1979 Edward Hopper's New England Carl Little, Edward Hopper, 1993 Edward Hopper 1882 1967 one of the most important American painters of the twentieth century spent nearly every summer of his long artistic career in New England This book presents many of Hopper's finest paintings of the region and examines the crucial role New England played in Hopper's development as an artist Carl Little is author of Paintings of Maine and is a regular contributor to Art New England and Art in America The Loneliness Factor Carole Oles, 1979-01-01 Structural Equation Modeling of Multiple Rater Data Michael Eid, Christian Geiser, Tobias Koch, 2024-10-15 The use of multiple raters can improve the validity of conclusions made on self and other reports of emotions attitudes goals and self perceptions of personality Yet analyzing these ratings requires special psychometric models that take into account the specific nature of these data From leading authorities this book offers the first comprehensive introduction to structural equation modeling SEM of multiple rater data Rather than taking a one size fits all approach the book shows how the choice of a model should be guided by measurement design and purpose Practical recommendations are provided for selecting suitable measurement designs raters and psychometric models Models for different combinations of rater types and for cross sectional as well as longitudinal research designs are described step by step with a strong emphasis on the substantive meaning of the latent variables in the models User friendly features include equation boxes application boxes and a companion website with Mplus and lavaan code for the book's examples BETTER OFF DEAD Antoinette Randall, 2019-04-01 Better Off Dead is a book that deals with purpose suicide from a state of depression Much emphasis is placed on the obvious acts of suicide but what about those who continue to live as a skeleton beneath the surface of their appearance Depression is a monster that will overtake people regardless of their age gender religion or socioeconomic status There is a root cause to depression and getting better means nourishing the root There are factors that humans deal with daily that are first class tickets to depression suppression repression or oppression This book uniquely and informatively highlights depression in a way that's not popularly discussed The style of this piece will leave you on the edge of your reasoning regarding how the spirit of depression can be managed and in mature cases defeated

Individual and Organizational Vulnerability and Resilience Factors in the COVID-19 Pandemic Barbara Hildegard Juen, Eva-Maria Kern, Sigridur Thormar, 2023-10-23 Vulnerability and resilience are concepts that have long been treated as individual and contradicting topics In recent times we have seen that vulnerabilities and resilience can go hand in hand and that vulnerabilities cannot be conceptualized only in simple terms because intersectionality must be considered as well as social organizational and systemic aspects and processes One example is that women are more vulnerable higher values in nearly all stress related measures in the COVID 19 pandemic This finding has to be analyzed from an intersectional perspective because socio economic factors cultural factors exposure to COVID 19 and the type of occupation e g healthcare sector frontline workers play an important role in how vulnerable or resilient women can be in a given society The large number of studies on COVID 19 vulnerabilities makes it necessary to take a closer look at the resilience factors that often go hand in hand with potential vulnerabilities As we see in the literature about pandemics in general and COVID 19 there are some individual organizational and systemic vulnerabilities that can be found in all pandemics From that we can assume that there will be resilience factors within the same concepts that may buffer vulnerabilities

Care-Related Quality of Life in Old Age

Marja Vaarama, Richard Pieper, Andrew Sixsmith, 2007-10-27 The ageing of populations across the world poses a crucial challenge for the twenty first century Society faces three major changes firstly increasing numbers of active older people demanding new social structures and opportunities secondly increasing numbers of frail or disabled older people requiring new interventions and improved health and social care with resulting economic consequences and finally complex economic technological organisational and social challenges involved in the ageing of society If society wants to benefit from these changes innovative social organisational and technological responses are needed This book presents the findings of the Care Keys project Keys for Quality Performance Management of the Care of Older Persons in Europe and is an example of how research can respond to the challenges outlined above Care Keys was the fruit of European Union research funding made possible under the Quality of Life and Management of Living Resources specific programme 1 1998 2002 under the EC's Fifth Framework Programme for Research Technological Development and Demonstration The activity promoting such research was Key Action 6 on the Ageing Population and their Disabilities

Emerging and Re-Emerging Organizational Features, Work Transitions and Occupational Risk

Factors: The Good, the Bad, the Right. An Interdisciplinary Perspective Giulio Arcangeli, Gabriele Giorgi, Nicola Mucci, Jean-Luc Bernaud, Annamaria Di Fabio, 2019-03-07 The labor market is evolving very rapidly in recent years in Europe and worldwide The fast and deep changes brought a brand new context of challenges and occupational risks to the attention of stakeholders The current global financial crisis has increased the economic pressures on companies and they in turn have intensified the effects on employees particularly in terms of new competition contexts and a lot of stress and mental health issues Concurrently social political and environmental problems generate under employment over qualification over education low wages for skilled workers and unmet demand for education Consequently both high skilled and low skilled immigrant workers are increasing In addition workplaces are continually changing in step with the introduction of new technologies materials and work processes together with the changes in the labor market the new forms of employment and the new work organizations These changes lead to new opportunities for employees and employers but also to new risks or re actualization of old organizational risks According to the EU OSHA the key points that describe the evolution that is currently ongoing in the world of work are globalization the technical innovation and the aging population On one hand some older potential risks are reappearing in organizations intensive fear and worries organizational anxiety boredom physical violence alienation segregation loneliness and isolation On the other hand re emerging perceived organizational features seem vital for organizations and more important today than ever Central constructs in the study of organizational behavior and organizational health such as perceived organizational support commitment in organizational context socialization processes change capacity of organizations perceived organizational justice ergonomics and motivation nowadays seem increasingly important and renewed
