women characterized female composition and describes an extensive range of cross cultural multilingual activity The Longman Anthology of World Literature ,2004 Longman Anthology of World Literature, Volume A David Damrosch, David L. Pike, April Alliston, Page Dubois, Marshall Brown, Sabry Hafez, Sheldon Pollock, Ursula K. Heise, Djelal Kadir, Pauline Yu, Bruce Robbins, Haruo Shirane, Jane Tylus, 2008-07 The Longman Anthology of World Literature Compact Edition presents a fresh and diverse range of the world's great literature in a single volume that links past and present East and West and literary and cultural contexts Featuring major works by literary masters from the ancient world through the twentieth century this concise anthology combines comprehensive coverage of key works of the Western literary tradition and the best core enduring works of the literatures of China Japan India the Middle East Africa and native Americas The anthology includes epic and lyric poetry drama and prose narrative with many complete works and a focus on the most influential pieces and authors from each region and time period The texts are supplemented by contextual materials that help students understand the literary and historical eras from which these texts arose Engaging introductions scholarly annotations maps pronunciation guides and illustrations developed by a distinguished editorial team provide a wealth of teachable materials that support and illuminate the selections Literary Activism Amit Chaudhuri, 2018-02-15 Literary Activism revisits and interrogates and looks to renew the force of the literary It's a movement that emerges from a radically altered landscape for both publishing and academia where what Amit Chaudhuri calls market activism has effected changes on language on the measuring of value on the concept of influence in ways we struggle to recognise Encompassing the perspectives of the writer critic translator academic and publisher the essays in this volume follow no single line of enquiry Rather they offer the beginnings of an analysis of the literary world at a certain moment of globalisation while also questioning whether a literary world exists and if it does where its boundaries lie The collection moves in many directions from Arun Kolatkar and his near heroic refusal of both marketplace and reputation to Derek Attridge who argues for a form of affirmative criticism which positions the critic as a lover of the text while from Amsterdam Dubravka Ugrešić reflects on life in a literary out of nation zone adrift in a territory where intellectual protest has been stripped of ideological impetus and subsumed by the voraciousness of the market Taken together these essays initiate a series of conversations about who reads what and why about the practice of writing and criticism at this particular contemporary moment and about the activities and institutions that shape an understanding of what literature is and what it can do The Athenaeum ,1910
