

The definitive annotated companion to

THE LORD OF THE RINGS

"It is not possible even at great length to 'put' The Lord of the Rings in a paragraph or two . . . It was begun in 1957, and every part has been written many times. Hardly a word in its 500,000 or more has been unconsidered. And the placing, size, style, and contribution to the whole of the letters, incidents, and chapters has been laboriously pondered. I do not say this in recommendation. It is, I feel, only too likely that I am deluded, lost in a web of vain imaginings of not much value to others — in spite of the fact that a few readers have found it good, on the whole. What I intend to say is this: I cannot substantially alter the thing. I have finished it, it is 'off my mind': the labour has been colossal, and it must stand or fall, practically as it is."
