Kingship of the Scots, 842-1292 A A M Duncan, 2016-08-30 First published in 2002 and here introduced by Dauvit Broun as a core text in Scottish medieval history this classic work is considered one of the most invaluable critiques of kingship in Scotland during the nation's foundations In the early years of the period a custom of succession within one royal lineage allowed the Gaelic kingdom to grow in authority and extent The Norman Conquest of England altered the balance of power between the north and south and the relationship between the two kingdoms which had never been easy became unstable When Scotland became kingless in 1286 Edward I exploited the succession debate between Balliol and Bruce and set claim to overlordship of Scotland until Bruce's coronation fixed the right of succession by law for Scottish kingship In a meticulous account of this period Professor Duncan disentangles the power struggles during the Great Cause between the Balliols and the Bruces and of the actions motives and decisive interventions of Edward I The Kingship of the Scots is historical scholarship at its best thoughtful challenging incisive and readable Land Law and People in Medieval Scotland Neville Cynthia J. Neville, 2012-10-16 This ambitious book newly available in paperback examines the encounter between Gaels and Europeans in Scotland in the central Middle Ages offering new insights into an important period in the formation of the Scots national identity It is based on a close reading of the texts of several thousand charters indentures brieves and other written sources that record the business conducted in royal and baronial courts across the length and breadth of the medieval kingdom between 1150 and 1400 Under the broad themes of land law and people this book explores how the customs laws and traditions of the native inhabitants and those of incoming settlers interacted and influenced each other Drawing on a range of theoretical and methodological approaches the author places her subject matter firmly within the recent historiography of the British Isles and demonstrates how the experience of Scotland was both similar to and a distinct manifestation of a wider process of Europeanisation The Scots Revised Reports ,1905 Historical and descriptive catalogue of the pictures, busts, &c., by G. Scharf. compiled by sir G. Scharf. Abridged, revised and continued by L. Cust National Portrait Gallery (Great Britain),1900
