The Love Debate Poems Of Christine De Pizan:

The Love Debate Poems of Christine de Pizan Barbara K. Altmann, 1998 Altmann is making a major contribution by providing this much needed text of Christine's significant but inadequately known debate poems together with essential philological codicological and historical background annotations together with a landmark literary critical preface Nadia Margolis editor The Christine de Pizan Society Newsletter This new edition of Christine de Pizan's love debate poems supercedes the only other modern edition 1886 by working from all existing fifteenth century versions and by using as a base manuscript the version now generally acknowledged as the definitive copy The poems Livre du Debat de deux amans the Livre des Trois jugemens and the Livre du Dit de Poissy are spirited discussions of approximately 2000 lines concerning the finer points of late medieval love doctrine and protocol Written early in the fifteenth century they are significant both because of their contribution to the tradition of debates and dits by such authors as Guillaume de Machaut Jean Froissart and Alain Chartier and because their author is arguably the most important female writer in the west before Austen Alongside the texts Altmann provides the first extended study of these debates in their own right offering a literary historical background to the form analyzing Christine's use of the traditional form and content of the love debate and providing sections on the codicology and philology of the poems She also provides an introduction summary and textual notes for each of the poems as well as a glossary for nonspecialist readers Barbara K Altmann is associate professor of French at the University of Oregon and author of articles on French medieval verse in French Studies and elsewhere

Christine de Pizan Charlotte Cooper-Davis, 2021-11-06 The first popular biography of a pioneering feminist thinker and writer of medieval Paris The daughter of a court intellectual Christine de Pizan dwelled within the cultural heart of late medieval Paris In the face of personal tragedy she learned the tools of the book trade writing more than forty works that included poetry historical and political treatises and defenses of women In this new biography the first written for a general audience Charlotte Cooper Davis discusses the life and work of this pioneering female thinker and writer She shows how Christine de Pizan's inspiration came from the world around her situates her as an entrepreneur within the context of her times and place and finally examines her influence on the most avant garde of feminist artists through whom she is slowly making a return into mainstream popular culture

Christine de Pizan 2000, 2022-09-12 Christine de Pizan ca 1364 ca 1430 whether read as lyric poet prose polemicist or historian feminist or universal moralist has over the past thirty years become more widely read than any other medieval French author The attraction of her works continues to grow amongst the general public as well as among critics and historians of literature ideas science and the visual arts political scientists and philologists and specialists in feminist theory Christine intrigues readers by her intellectual paradoxes as much as by her prefiguration of modern attitudes by and toward women This collection of essays honours Angus J Kennedy an illustrious scholar who has greatly contributed to fostering this modern growth in interest The editors here present a significant sampling of varieties of inquiry on Christine a broad range of contributors from around the world represent different approaches and levels of experience The volume contains two indexes and a bibliography structured to serve as an integrated and integral reference source to pertinent primary and secondary materials This volume thus charts the progress of Christine de Pizan studies at the start of the new millennium True to the spirit of its honoree it also aims to serve as a gateway to future research Debate of the Romance of the Rose David F. Hult, 2010-04-15 In 1401 Christine de Pizan 1365a 1430 wrote a letter to the provost of Lille criticizing the highly popular Romance of the Rose for its unwarranted misogynistic depictions of women Here Hult collects debate documents letters and excerpts from other works of Pizan including one from City of Ladies her major defense of women Christine de Pizan Barbara K. Altmann, Deborah L. McGrady, 2020-08-11 Christine de Pizan wrote voluminously commenting on various aspects of the late medieval society in which she lived Considered by many to be the first French woman of letters Christine and her writing have been difficult to place ever since she began putting her thoughts on the page Although her work was neglected in the eighteenth and nineteenth century there has been an eruption of Christine studies in recent decades making her the perfect subject for a casebook This volume serves as a useful guide to contemporary research exploring Christine's life and work as they reflected and influenced her socio-political milieu Christine de Pizan Angus J. Kennedy, 2004 The Political Theory of Christine De Pizan Kate Langdon Forhan, 2018-02-06 This title was first published in 2002 Christine de Pizan held no political office and her work was not influential on any political theorist living today However in the disciplines of women's studies and French literature she has inspired intellectual debate so much that the two sides of the debate are referred to as Christinophiles and Christinoclasts This book presents the political paradoxes of Christine de Pizan She was a woman in a man's world an Italian at a French court and the daughter of a civil servant in a world structured by social class Her corpus of political works include five works designed to educate the male ruling class two works expressly for princesses and a treatise on warfare The goal of this book is to outline the political theory of Christine de Pizan and situate her ideas within the history of political ideas in general Christine de Pizan and the Fight for France Tracy Adams, 2014-09-05 In Christine de Pizan and the Fight for France Tracy Adams offers a reevaluation of Christine de Pizan's literary engagement with contemporary politics Adams locates Christine's works within a detailed narrative of the complex history of the dispute between the Burgundians and the Armagnacs the two largest political factions in fifteenth-century France Contrary to what many scholars have long believed Christine consistently supported the Armagnac faction throughout her literary career and maintained strong ties to Louis of Orleans and Isabeau of Bavaria By focusing on the historical context of the Armagnac-Burgundian feud at different moments and offering close readings of Christine's poetry and prose Adams shows the ways in which the writer was closely engaged with and influenced the volatile politics of her time Joan of Arc and Christine de Pizan's Ditié Karen Green, 2021-06-29 Grounded in a close reading of the records of Joan's trial and rehabilitation on the early letters announcing her arrival at Chinon and on three literary works Christine de Pizan's

Diti Martin le Franc's Le Champion des dames and Alain Chartier's Trait de l'Esperance this controversial work argues that serious historians should accept that Joan was trained. It proposes that she was identified and taught how to behave in the expectation of the fulfillment of the Charlemagne Prophecy and other prophecies from the Joachimite tradition. It explores the possibility that Christine de Pizan, who had been promoting these prophecies from the beginning of the century, had some hand in the process that resulted in Joan's appearance and demonstrates at the very least that there are many links connecting Christine de Pizan to the knights who fought with Joan. Approaches to Teaching the Works of Christine de Pizan Andrea Tarnowski, 2018-12-01. Offers pedagogical techniques for teaching the works of Christine de Pizan in college classrooms including consideration of architecture, feminism, gender, history, intertextuality, memory, poetics, politics, music, translation, visual narrative, and women's studies.
