Caravaggio Francine Prose, 2005-10-04 Francine Prose's life of Caravaggio evokes the genius of this great artist through a brilliant reading of his paintings Caravaggio defied the aesthetic conventions of his time his use of ordinary people realistically portrayed street boys prostitutes the poor the aged was a profound and revolutionary innovation that left its mark on generations of artists His insistence on painting from nature on rendering the emotional truth of experience whether religious or secular makes him an artist who speaks across the centuries to our own time Born in 1571 near Milan Michelangelo Merisi da Caravaggio moved to Rome when he was twenty one years old He became a brilliant and successful artist protected by the influential Cardinal del Monte and other patrons But he was also a man of the streets who couldn't seem to free himself from its brawls and vendettas In 1606 he fled Rome apparently after killing another man in a dispute He spent his last years in exile in Naples Malta and Sicily at once celebrated for his art and tormented by his enemies Through it all he produced masterpieces of astonishing complexity and power Eventually he received a pardon from the Pope only to die in mysterious circumstances on the way back to Rome in 1610 Francine Prose presents the brief but tumultuous life of one of the greatest of all painters with passion and acute sensitivity

Representing from Life in Seventeenth-century Italy Sheila McTighe, 2025-10-01 In drawing or painting from live models and real landscapes more was at stake for artists in early modern Italy than achieving greater naturalism To work with the model in front of your eyes and to retain their identity in the finished work of art had an impact on concepts of artistry and authorship the authority of the image as a source of knowledge the boundaries between repetition and invention and even the relation of images to words This book focuses on artists who worked in Italy both native Italians and migrants from northern Europe The practice of depicting from life became a self conscious departure from the norms of Italian arts In the context of court culture in Rome and Florence works by artists ranging from Caravaggio to Claude Lorrain Pieter van Laer to Jacques Callot reveal new aspects of their artistic practice and its critical implications
