The Living Temple George Herbert And Catechizing:

The Living Temple Stanley Eugene Fish, Professor of English and Professor of Law Stanley Fish, 1978 The Ludic Self in Seventeenth-Century English Literature Anna K. Nardo, 1991-01-01 This book argues that play offered Hamlet John Donne George Herbert Andrew Marvell Robert Burton and Sir Thomas Browne a way to live within the contradictions and conflicts of late Renaissance life by providing a new stance for the self Grounding its argument in recent theories of play and in a historical analysis that sees the seventeenth century as a point of crisis in the formation of the western self the author demonstrates how play helped mediate this crisis and how central texts of the period enact this mediation George Herbert and the Business of Practical Piety Ceri Sullivan, 2024-07-20 Contemporary nudge theory points out that people make good choices over issues where they have had past experience of similar circumstances where there is reliable substantial and relevant information about the situation and where they will get prompt feedback about the effect of their decision Yet none of these conditions apply to the most vital choice of action facing early modern Protestants how can they be saved In George Herbert and the Business of Practical Piety Ceri Sullivan uses nudge theory to show how practical divinity disregards the doleful conclusions of predestination that salvation cannot be earned to supply readers with suggestions on how to prepare to act regardless of their final destiny Such texts create cognitive niches to support cheerful godly thought and action in a way which is far from being despairing or compulsive Their nudges were repeatedly put into practice by Herbert's friends the Ferrars who tried to form an ideal religious community at Little Gidding These prescriptions and examples illustrate how George Herbert's The Temple 1633 is a compendium of the techniques of choice architecture Herbert's poems are full of the humour emerging from a life of faith which is willing to guard high ideals by low cunning stooping to use the least little things to change a self George Herbert and the Business of Practical Piety initially calls on theories of the extended mind to ask what sort of minor physical and social structures scaffold decisions then examines a selection of nudges used by Herbert contracts with the self building a mind cleaning a heart conversing with God making to do lists and working on working well A George Herbert Companion (Routledge Revivals) Robert H. Ray, 2014-05-01 First published in 1995 this title provides the reader with a compendium of useful information for any reader of George Herbert to have at hand It includes key biographical information situates the poetry in its historical and cultural context and where appropriate explains theological concepts and traditions which have a direct bearing on the verse The aim throughout is to enhance understanding and appreciation without being exhaustive A George Herbert Companion will be of most use to general readers and undergraduate students coming to this poetry for the first time and will interest students of Anglican Caroline theology and hymnology George Herbert's Christian Narrative Harold Toliver, 2010-11-01 "All Possible Art" Kristine A. Wolberg, 2008 Long studied for historical biographical or sociological purposes The Country Parson has not received the literary appreciation it deserves Through an analysis exploring genre themes topics emphasis context and models this study finds the book to be a carefully conceived and executed piece of literary prose The Johannine Renaissance in Early Modern English Literature and Theology Paul Cefalu, 2017-10-27 The Johannine Renaissance in Early Modern English Literature and Theology argues that the Fourth Gospel and First Epistle of Saint John the Evangelist were so influential during the early modern period in England as to share with Pauline theology pride of place as leading apostolic texts on matters Christological sacramental pneumatological and political The book argues further that in several instances Johannine theology is more central than both Pauline theology and the Synoptic theology of Matthew Mark and Luke particularly with regard to early modern polemicizing on the Trinity distinctions between agape and eros and the ideologies of radical dissent especially the seventeenth century antinomian challenge of free grace to traditional Puritan Pietism In particular early modern religious poetry including works by Robert Southwell George Herbert John Donne Richard Crashaw Thomas Traherne and Anna Trapnel embraces a distinctive form of Johannine devotion that emphasizes the divine rather than human nature of Christ the belief that salvation is achieved more through revelation than objective atonement and expiatory sin a realized eschatology a robust doctrine of assurance and comfort and a stylistic and rhetorical approach to representing these theological features that often emulates John's mode of discipleship misunderstanding and dramatic irony Early modern Johannine devotion assumes that religious lyrics often express a revelatory poetics that aims to clarify typically through the use of dramatic irony some of the deepest mysteries of the Fourth Gospel and First Epistle Picturing

Religious Experience Daniel Doerksen, 2011-11-10 Little has been said about the relationship of Herbert's writings to those of John Calvin yet the latter were abundant and influential in Herbert's Church of England Accordingly Picturing Religious Experience studies Herbert's poetry in relation to those writings particularly regarding spiritual conflicts which the poet himself said would be found depicted in his book of poems Much more than is generally realized Calvin wrote about the experience of living the Christian life which is also Herbert's subject in many of his poems Altogether this study maintains that Herbert owes to his religious orientation not just themes or details but an impulse to observe and depict the inner life and scriptural patterns which significantly contribute to the substance and literary excellence of The Temple Published by University of Delaware Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press The Rhetoric of the Conscience in Donne, Herbert, and Vaughan Ceri Sullivan, 2008-09-11 There is a kind of conscience some men keepe Is like a Member that s benumb d with sleepe Which as it gathers Blood and wakes agen It shoots and pricks and feeles as bigg as ten Donne Herbert and Vaughan see the conscience as only partly theirs only partly under their control Of course as theologians said it ought to be a simple syllogism comparing actions to God's law and giving judgement in a joint procedure of the soul and its maker Inevitably though there are problems Hearts refuse to confess or forget the rules or jumble them up or refuse to come to the point when delivering a verdict The three poets are beady eyed experts on failure After all where subjects can only discover their authentic nature in relation to the divine it matters whether the conversation works Remarkably each poet

despite their very different devotional backgrounds uses similar sets of tropes to investigate problems enigma aposiopesis breaking off chiasmus subjectio asking then answering a question and antanaclassis repetition with a difference Structured like a language the conscience is tortured rewritten read and broken up to engineer a proper response Considering the faculty as an uncomfortable extrusion of the divine into the everyday the rhetoric of the conscience transforms Protestant into prosthetic poetics It moves between early modern theology rhetoric and aesthetic theory to give original scholarly and committed readings of the great metaphysical poets Topics covered include boredom torture graffiti tattoos anthologizing resentment tears dust casuistry and opportunism Patterns and Patterning Bart Westerweel, 2021-11-15
