Hitchcock a superficial though brilliant entertainer or a moralist Do his films celebrate the ideal of romantic love or subvert it In a new interpretation of the director s work Richard Allen argues that Hitchcock orchestrates the narrative and stylistic idioms of popular cinema to at once celebrate and subvert the ideal of romance and to forge a distinctive worldview the amoral outlook of the romantic ironist or aesthete He describes in detail how Hitchcock s characteristic tone is achieved through a titillating combination of suspense and black humor that subverts the moral framework of the romantic thriller and a meticulous approach to visual style that articulates the lure of human perversity even as the ideal of romance is being deliriously affirmed Discussing more than thirty films from the director s English and American periods Allen explores the filmmaker s adoption of the idioms of late romanticism his orchestration of narrative point of view and suspense and his distinctive visual strategies of aestheticism and expressionism and surrealism Hitchcock's British Films Maurice Yacowar,2010 In this traditional auteurist examination of Hitchcock s early work author Maurice Yacowar considers Hitchcock s British films in chronological order reading the composition of individual shots and scenes in each and paying special attention to the films verbal effects Video Meera Nair,2007-12-18 The ten exquisitely crafted stories in Video introduce a gifted new writer whose straight forward elegant prose and bewitching storytelling talent combine in brilliant miniatures of contemporary Indian life In the title story an Indian man s chance exposure to a Western style porn film affects not only his marriage his wife hides for hours then days then weeks at a time from his renewed desire but also his neighborhood as traditional notions of marriage intimacy and propriety confront the unspeakable and the tacitly alluring In The Sculptor of Sands a superbly imagined mystical tale with the depth and resonance of legend a slight young man s sensuous sand sculptures transfix a seaside community and despite their evanescence leave an indelible impression on the women of the town In My Grandfather Dreams of Fences an aging landlord convinced that his worker is stealing his land desperately clings to the vestiges of a rigid class system erecting fences with fervor while his dignity falls into disrepair And in The Lodger in Room 726 a boy who daily brings breakfast to the new tenant in a rooming house unleashes a cascade of emotions previously unknown to him when he pursues his fantasy that the man is a well known murderer on the lam An astonishing debut written with a wry intelligence and an irresistible blend of humor wit and pathos Video masterfully evokes traditional Indian culture as it confronts the onrush of change In subtle gestures and keenly observed details Meera Nair reveals an entire world of gleaming particularity and transcendent emotional power Dreams of Modernity Laura Marcus,2014-11-17 Laura Marcus is one of the leading literary critics of modernist literature and culture Dreams of Modernity Psychoanalysis Literature Cinema covers the period from around 1880 to 1930 when modernity as a form of social and cultural life fed into the beginnings of modernism as a cultural form Railways cinema psychoanalysis and the literature of detection and their impact on modern sensibility are four of the chief subjects explored Marcus also stresses the creativity of modernist women writers including H D Dorothy Richardson and Virginia Woolf The overriding themes of this work bear on the understanding of the early twentieth century as a transitional age thus raising the question of how the moderns understood the conditions of their own modernity The Law Journal Reports ,1878
