The Long Trail Home On Our Way To English:

The Long Trail Home Janet Kinrade Dethick, 2016-01-30 During the Second World War the small landlocked Italian region of Umbria was crossed by thousands of Allied servicemen There were those entrained for camps in Northern Italy in Germany or in German controlled territories There were those belonging to work parties who came in open trucks from Campo PG 54 at Fara in Sabina to construct a new camp Campo PG 77 at Pissignano or to swell the much depleted indigenous labour force in a cement factory and brickworks and were interned in PG 115 Morgnano and PG 115 3 Marsciano There were men from the Special Air Services SAS who had been parachuted in to carry out special missions There were the American airmen whose planes had been shot down from the Umbrian skies There were the escapers and evaders who in trying to reach the Allied Lines or neutral Switzerland walked the Appenines There were two submariners from HM Submarine Saracen who were held in Perugia gaol before being sent to Dachau This is their story An Illustrated

Hail of Fire Randy Fritz, 2015-05-18 Every year people watch in shock as homes are destroyed and communities devastated by natural disasters As the media arrives the information that is reported is mainly statistical The horror of living through and recovering from the experience is rarely told because almost no one has the emotional strength to speak out while the smoke is still in the air or the floodwaters are still receding The stories of a disaster s most important effects which unfold slowly and invisibly for months and sometimes years are never told That is until now Hail of Fire A Man and His Family Face Natural Disaster is an intimate account of the third worst wild fire in U S history and the worst in the history of Texas It is a memoir about what happened to Randy Fritz an artist turned politician turned public policy leader and his family during and after combining a searing account of the fire as it grew to apocalyptic strength with universal themes of loss grief and the rebuilding of one s life after a calamitous event The wildfire itself was traumatic to those who witnessed it and suffered its immediate aftermath But the most significant impact came in the months and years following as families grieved struggled to adapt to a their new world and accepted the destruction of an iconic forest of internationally acclaimed great natural beauty the Lost Pines Neighbors once close worried about or could not find one another while others discovered new friendships that transcended the boundaries of race class and family lineage Fritz a man who previously held the highest elective office in his local community struggled as his wife Holly and their youngest daughter Miranda tried to make sense of their losses He never imagined the impact this disaster would have on them individually and as a family as well as the emotional toll he would pay and the journey to make sense of it all While natural disasters seem increasingly common deeply personal and redemptive accounts of them are less so Hail of Fire is an unflinching story of how a man and his tight knit family found grace after a wildfire took everything Fritz s hard won insights provide inspiration to anyone with a quest to figure out what truly matters particularly those who have undergone an unexpected and life changing event and those who
