Heaman and F. Gautiez, who were executed within the flood mark of Leith on the 9th January 1822, for murder and piracy. To which is added a short account of the life and death of M. this perverse and obdurate people He reveals His glory as the only begotten Son of God by raising Lazarus from the grave after he had been dead four days He performed a deed so tremendous that it would seem that none could doubt or challenge His Divine power But even that failed to bring them to faith Unfaith won its final triumph and the Jews made ready the cross It failed as an appeal but it left the Jews without excuse
