Practical Theology and Pierre-André Liégé Nicholas Bradbury,2016-03-03 Pierre Andr Li g one of the foremost French theologians of the 20th century influenced John XXIII and Paul VI and sat on Vatican II committees with both the future John Paul II and Benedict VI Fifty years on from Vatican II is a good time to remember the decade of dramatic struggle and pioneering work that preceded it and review what it accomplished This book explores the life and work of Pierre Andr Li g presenting it to an English speaking readership for the first time Discussing the impact and profound challenges Liege s work raises for spirituality and church life today Bradbury tackles issues including the organisation of parish life rooted in theological criteria cradle to grave corporate Christian formation a compelling vision of what the church is for and why and how should this be expressed in practice Bradbury argues that for faith to match real life the church today needs to let go of much baggage align its talk to its action and radically re examine the question of what the church needs to do to conform to the Gospel This book takes critical issues confronting practical theology and the church breaking them open in a lively and accessible style

Understanding 5fold Ministry Stefan Sos,2006-09 The Gifted Church W. Clay Jackson MD DipTh,2025-02-13 What if we re missing something The New Testament describes a vibrant church empowered by the Holy Spirit with supernatural gifts of manifestation service and leadership which turned the known world upside down within three generations But as the freedom of the operation of the Holy Spirit waned and post apostolic leaders consolidated power within hierarchical systems that missional momentum was truncated In this pivotal work Dr Jackson brings an Apostolic hermeneutic to the scriptures and mountain of classical and contemporary sources to demonstrate that this historical declension from scriptural truths began its long reversal with the Reformation culminating in the worldwide outpouring of the Holy Spirit in the early 20th century The restorationist impulse of the pioneers of modern Pentecostalism caused them to embrace previously neglected manifestation gifts charismata but did not substantially alter their ecclesiology as they failed to fully actualize the edification gifts domata Dr Jackson details the function and characteristics of each edification gift or speaking leadership role within a scriptural framework of an apostolic team He warns against excesses and abuses of power and reminds each disciple maker that the character of the Giver not the characteristics of the gift is the true determinant of our ability to serve faithfully This book will challenge the pastor theologian to rethink church leadership and to reengage the whole church in the kingdom expansion that characterized early Christianity It will provide enrichment and clarity regarding the roles of those who portray and embody various types of edification leadership gifts The result will be a church whose missional impulse is not outsourced to designees but internalized within each member of a Body that is equipped for service within local and global contexts Pastoral Care and the Means of Grace Ralph L. Underwood, 1992-10-01 The emphasis on pastoral freedom is nearly spent and found wanting Many caregivers today are seeking to balance such freedom with a sense of God's transcendence and communal order which entail personal and ritual formation In Underwood's resulting spirituality the soul of pastoral care is prayer The substance is Scripture studied in both liturgical and personal settings The evangelical principle is reconciliation Baptism lays the foundation for pastoral care by providing the paradigm for all transformations Eucharist constitutes the eschatological horizon for pastoral care as ministry in the human encounter of God's presence This winsomely written book stands at the forefront of a broad movement among scholars and clergy in nonliturgical traditions that aims at retrieving explicitly religious resources the means of grace The result is a rare truly ecumenical contribution to pastoral care which deepens practice by providing a vision and a spirituality Modern Psychotherapies Stanton L. Jones, Richard E. Butman, 2012-12-05 Stanton Jones and Richard Butman present an updated edition of their comprehensive appraisal of modern psychotherapies With new chapters on preventative intervention strategies and the person of the Christian psychotherapist Modern Psychotherapies remains an indispensable tool for therapists and students 7 Lessons for New Pastors, Second Edition Matthew D. MacArthur, Master's Seminary Faculty, 2017-03-07 Pastor John MacArthur combines his passion for the Bible with the training expertise of faculty members at The Master's Seminary to guide seminary students and ministry leaders in developing their pastoral ministry skills Pastors today can easily become preoccupied with the many pitfalls of modern culture buying into the idea of image and straying from Jesus's call to shepherd leadership Pastoral Ministry How to Shepherd Biblically presents a practical pastoral theology aimed at showing pastors and pastors in training the vital role God's word plays in shaping the preparation and maintaining the priorities of pastoring The authors examine the biblical teaching about the high and demanding call to ministry required of any spiritual shepherd You'll learn how to pursue intentional growth through the stages of calling training and ministering to God's church along the way uncovering answers to questions such as How does the Bible establish a philosophy of pastoral ministry and what is it Who is personally qualified to be an undershepherd of God's flock What are the biblical preparations required of shepherd leaders What priority does God's word place on activities involved in pastoral ministry United in affirming shepherd leadership as the biblical model for pastoral ministry The Master's Seminary faculty contributes a treasury of expertise alongside insights from well known Bible teacher John MacArthur This book will inspire any pastor dedicated to serving God's church in the pattern of Jesus Christ The Modern Theologians David F. Frye, 2010-08-03 A personal and practical guide to help pastors find Jesus as their mentor For decades Paul has been the model for today's pastors But Pastor John Frye says we must instead look to Jesus as our model While we may lift Christ up as Savior as we bow down to him as Lord as we marvel at his offices of Prophet Priest and King as we walk with him as Friend we seem to ignore him as the supreme Senior Pastor Sharing thought provoking biblical insights and personal experiences Frye calls other pastors to become apprentices to Jesus himself He is the One who invites pastors to watch him in action and draw close so he can shape who they are and how they fulfill their ministry Why have pastors and churches not been driven to Jesus as the central and controlling focus for the pastoral vocation and ministry in the local church He's been relegated to other dimensions of Christian and local church experience Jesus is shoved into our shadows as we read our management books do our cultural surveys attend our leadership seminars and applaud or criticize one another's endeavors John Frye in Jesus the Pastor Modern Psychopathologies Mark A. Yarhouse, Richard E. Butman, Barrett W.

McRay, 2016-09-23 Mark A Yarhouse Richard E Butman and Barrett W McRay offer this revised companion volume to Modern

Psychotherapies addressing students and mental health professionals who want to sort through contemporary secular understandings of psychopathology in relationship to a Christian worldview Biblical Pastors Were Not and Are Not Ceos. James D. Martin, 2020-06-02 The emergence of the pastor Chief Executive Officer CEO position in churches today has become widely acceptable in Mega and Meta churches Recent studies have not explored this issue David Fisher acknowledges that in the 21st century being a pastor presents major challenges because it leads to professional and personal identity crisis resulting from secular and ecclesial challenges Studies have supported the idea that there is the need for church leaders to adopt the secular models of leadership and several noted authors have shown that churches today have become like other organizations that have to market their products This is a problematic interpretation because leadership in modern churches has gone beyond the biblical and theological definitions of becoming shepherds of their flock and servants of God In the search for an effective pastoral leadership role this paper will explore the contemporary definition of pastoral leadership and compare it with what the scriptures say concerning the elders and servants of God assigned the duty of being shepherds of their flock

Moral Leadership in the Church: a Normative Approach Bishop Felix Clarence Orji, 2013-05-15 In a time of confusion uncertainty debate and division regarding what constitutes right moral behaviour the subject of responsible moral leadership in the church takes on fresh urgency But at this critical time of need for moral leadership too many clergy simply mirror the uncertainty or abnegate the responsibility This book addresses this anomaly specifically by proposing a normative model for moral leadership in the local church Pastors and leaders of all Christians traditions will find this book very informative and useful The book begins with an overview of the historical theological and biblical bases for Christian leadership and more particularly what the moral dimension of such leadership means Various Christian traditions are surveyed for insights into the character vision and tasks of moral leadership including the authoritative sources for ethical reflection and moral guidance Since Dr Felix Orji is a

Bishop in the Anglican Communion he includes a chapter on that tradition to give a sense of the ecclesiastical ethos in which presbyters must exercise such leadership This is followed by a clear examination of Scripture in regard to what it tells us about moral leadership This book ends with a detailed normative model for moral leadership in the church and a leadership training resource specifically designed for such leadership
