Technical Education and Vocational Training in Developing Nations Okolie, Ugochukwu Chinonso, Yasin, Asfa M., 2017-01-31 Severe economic depression and the difficulty to acquire employment with adequate income have significant impact on a nation's social welfare. The need to provide ample educational opportunities is more imperative than ever particularly in emerging economies. Technical Education and Vocational Training in Developing Nations is a comprehensive reference source for the latest literature on optimizing the implementation of curriculum development and instructional design strategies for technical and vocational education. Featuring innovative coverage across a range of relevant topics such as curriculum deficiency, teacher competencies and accessible learning, this book is ideally designed for policy makers, academicians, researchers, advanced level students, technology developers and educators interested in the improvement of professional learning programs.

Handbook of Technical and Vocational Education and Training Research Felix Rauner, Rupert Maclean, 2008-12-16 Technical and vocational education and training (TVET) research has become a recognized and well defined area of interdisciplinary research. This is the first handbook of its kind that specifically concentrates on research and research methods in TVET. The book's sections focus on particular aspects of the field starting with a presentation of the genesis of TVET research. They further feature research in relation to policy planning and practice. Various areas of TVET research are covered including on the vocational disciplines and on TVET systems. Case studies illustrate different approaches to TVET research and the final section of the book presents research methods including interview and observation methods as well as of experimentation and development. This handbook provides a comprehensive coverage of TVET research in an international context and with special focus on research and research methods it is a cutting edge resource and reference.

International Handbook of Education for the Changing World of Work Rupert Maclean, David Wilson, 2009-06-29 The aim of this Handbook is to review the developments that have occurred in Technical and vocational education and training (TVET) and that may help improve the field. The Handbook provides information on TVET models that occur in different parts of the world, reflects best and innovative practice and wherever possible uses case studies as examples. The 220 authors are representative of the various regions of the world and major international organisations involved in TVET. This volume presents the work of established researchers as well as the work of promising young researchers. Intended as the universally accepted resource for the field, the Handbook provides a comprehensive coverage of cutting edge developments in research, policy and practice in TVET within a single source. It will assist those involved in TVET at any level in making informed decisions and further advance and improve the field and to bridge the gap between vocational and academic education in the 21st century.

The International Handbook of

Educational Research in the Asia-Pacific Region J.P. Keeves,Ryo Watanabe,2013-11-11 The aim of the Handbook is to present readily accessible but scholarly sources of information about educational research in the Asia Pacific region The scale and scope of the Handbook is such that the articles included in it provide substantive contributions to knowledge and understanding of education in the Asia region In so doing the articles present the problems and issues facing education in the region and the findings of research conducted within the region that contribute to the resolution of these problems and issues Moreover since new problems and issues are constantly arising the articles in the Handbook also indicate the likely directions of future developments The different articles within the Handbook seek to conceptualize the problems in each specific content area under review provide an integration of the research conducted within that area the theoretical basis of the research the practical implications of the research and the contribution of the research towards the resolution of the problems identified Thus the articles do not involve the reporting of newly conducted research but rather require a synthesis of the research undertaken in a particular area with reference to the research methods employed and the theoretical frameworks on which the research is based In general the articles do not advocate a single point of view but rather present alternative points of view and comment on the debate and disagreements associated with the conduct and findings of the research Furthermore it should be noted that the Handbook is not concerned with research methodology and only considers the methods employed in inquiry in so far as the particular methods of research contribute to the effective investigation of problems and issues that have arisen in the conduct and provision of education at different levels within the region

Socio-Economic Perspectives on Vocational Skill Development: Emerging Research and Opportunities Okolie, Ugochukwu Chinonso,2019-11-15 Vocational skill development VSD has the capacity to contribute to poverty reduction because it serves as the key to job creation and inclusive growth As developed nations have been faced with high youth and graduate unemployment rates basic education and vocational skill development have become a priority of development cooperation activities However there is a realization that measures to improve skill training can only be successful if they are in harmony with employment and economic policies Socio Economic Perspectives on Vocational Skill Development Emerging Research and Opportunities is a collection of innovative research on the methods and applications of equipping individuals with relevant work skills and implementing effective skills systems that can lead to economic growth and high levels of productivity While highlighting topics including human capital professional development and skill gaps this book is ideally designed for managers business professionals policymakers academicians researchers and management students seeking the current understanding of the strategic role of skill development at different levels of the socio economic system

Vocational and Adult Education in Europe Fons van Wieringen,Graham Attwell,2013-03-09 The system of vocational and adult education and training in Europe offers young people and adults the opportunity to learn to play an effective part in the workplace and elsewhere in society Vocational and adult education and training is increasingly seen as crucial to the maintenance of employment economic growth and the social integration of disadvantaged groups In an economy and a society which are increasingly based on knowledge and information these tasks can only increase in importance This book brings together contributors from different disciplines and the different countries in Europe to look at current developments and debates in the development of European education and training including the relation between markets and institutions learning and organisations different programmes and sectors and the economics of education and training The book will be of interest to students researchers and policy makers concerned with the future of education and training in Europe

Research Anthology on Business and Technical Education in the Information Era Management Association, Information Resources, 2021-01-08 The Fourth Industrial Revolution has disrupted businesses worldwide through the introduction of highly automated processes This disruption has affected the way in which companies conduct business impacting everything from managerial styles to resource allocations to necessary new skillsets As the business world continues to change and evolve it is imperative that business education strategies are continuously revised and updated in order to adequately prepare students who will be entering the workforce as future entrepreneurs executives and marketers among other careers The Research Anthology on Business and Technical Education in the Information Era is a vital reference source that examines the latest scholarly material on pedagogical approaches in finance management marketing international business and other fields It also explores the implementation of curriculum development and instructional design strategies for technical education Highlighting a range of topics such as business process management skill development and educational models this multi volume book is ideally designed for business managers business and technical educators entrepreneurs academicians upper level students and researchers

Aid and Education in the Developing World Kenneth King, 1991 Examines the range of analytical work on education and training in developing countries that is associated with donor agencies It considers the effectiveness of such agencies as the World Bank UNESCO UNICEF and ILO as well as bilateral agencies in the USA and Europe

African Youth and the Persistence of Marginalization Danielle Resnick,James Thurlow,2015-04-10 The much heralded growth and transformation of many economies in sub Saharan Africa over the last decade continues to receive prominent attention in academic scholarship and among policy practitioners An apparent feature about this transformation however is that Africa s youth appear to have been left out This book critically examines the extent and consequences of the marginalization of African youth It questions conventional wisdoms about data trends aspirational goals and common policy interventions surrounding Africa s youth that have been variously propagated in both the development studies literature and in mainstream donor policy reports The book explores macro trends from both a temporal and cross regional perspective in order to highlight what is distinct about contemporary African youth and whether their prospects and behaviours do actually vary from their counterparts in other regions of the world or from previous generations of African youth Such studies include cross country analyses of youth employment patterns and modes of political participation in depth examination of the behaviours and aspirations of the urban youth and critical reflections on the impact of rural employment initiatives vocational education and learnership programmes The incorporation of multiple methods and disciplines as well as its attention to policy issues ensures that the book will be of great interest to graduate students researchers and professional researchers whose work lies at the intersection of African area studies and development studies as well as those focused on development economics political science and public policy and administration

Private Sector Development in an Emerging World Diederik Boer,Harald Sander,Katharina Friz,Antonella Anastasi,2023-12-04 This book explores the interactions between private sector development public policies and societal institutions with a strong view on contributing to sustainable and inclusive development in emerging countries The private sector is often praised as an engine of economic growth This belief has led to significant efforts to promote private sector development in emerging countries Development agencies prioritize private sector development and national governments are following suit resulting in often huge incentives to stimulate and attract private investment However private sector development is not a panacea for sustainable and inclusive development as the past decades have clearly shown Economic growth societal development and environmental sustainability are often in a sharp conflict and more often than not economic growth has failed to improve the lives of all citizens This book examines the role the state and the private sector should play to benefit from the dynamics of business development while ensuring that these benefits are shared broadly without jeopardizing sustainability The views presented differ in detail but the analyses and case studies presented share common themes namely that the relative roles of state and private sector of should be balanced and that this particular balance should be based on the context of each country in order to make the private public sector interaction work for all people

Resources in Education ,2000-10

Education, Poverty and the World Bank Philip W. Jones,2006 This book explains why the World Bank s commitment to education is important. It considers how the nature of the Bank as a financial institution has shaped its view of economic growth, development and poverty reduction. In shaping its education policies and programs from a banking point of view, a particular World Bank approach to educational development has emerged with major implications for the future of education worldwide. The book examines the reasons why the Bank is involved in education, the evolution of its education policy stances, and how the Bank uses education as part of its program of economic globalisation. The author provides a framework for assessing the Bank's impact and effectiveness in its education lending, especially in terms of poverty reduction. Bank work in education is hugely controversial. All around the world, in industrial countries, in transition economies, and in the poorest countries, the Bank continues to be under fire for its policy prescriptions and its modes of operation. From both left and right, the Bank is a major target of discontent. At the same time, the Bank is frequently misunderstood and misrepresented. The book is based on thousands of classified Bank documents examined over the past twenty years, and on wide-ranging interviews with past and present Bank officials. Although critical of many aspects of Bank work in education, the book will be recognised as a uniquely authoritative guide to Bank policy formation in education.

Back cover      The Rationale for Re-Structuring the Vocational Education in India Tilak Kumar Sharma, 2016-04-01. The intention of this book is to probe into a critical pedagogy of career education as a vital means to enhance vocationalization in an authentic sense. The book basically focuses on the need to re-structure the system and proposes the use of productive learning as a foundation for a well-rounded education that breaks down the dreadfully despicable dualisms of contemporary education: that is, the separation of theory from practice, individuals from collectivity, and schools from community. It also aims at exposing students to three viable requirements: the need for effective acquisition of skills, a critical pedagogy of occupational demands, and proper understanding of the potential resources for community development and prosperity. The implication is that creative activities, productive behavior, should move away from the single priority of economic advancement and profit toward the integration of developmental objectives for social and economic enlistment and effective mobilization.

Work, Learning and Sustainable Development John Fien, Rupert Maclean, Man-Gon Park, 2008-10-26. This book is the first that provides a comprehensive overview of the way countries' education systems and institutions have responded to the call for an integration of learning for work, citizenship, and sustainability at the Second International Conference on Technical and Vocational Education, which was held in Seoul in 1999. Discussions on the central theme of the Seoul Conference, lifelong learning and training for all, a bridge to the future, led to the conclusion that a new paradigm of both development and Technical and Vocational Education (TVET) was needed. This book showcases the wide range of international initiatives that have sought to put such exhortations into practice. It includes case studies of national TVET policy reforms, reoriented curricula, sustainable campus management programs, and examples of innovative approaches to integrating learning in TVET with on-the-job training and in community service. It also focuses on the issues and challenges being faced and ways of moving forward. Case studies feature initiatives in a wide range of world regions and countries and include authors from UK Germany Finland Canada USA Australia South Africa China Republic of Korea India Pakistan and the Philippines

Skills Development for Inclusive and Sustainable Growth in Developing Asia-Pacific Rupert Maclean, Shanti Jagannathan, Jouko Sarvi, 2012-12-09 Focusing on the Asia Pacific region which in recent years has been the engine of global economic growth this volume surveys trends and prospects in technical and vocational education and training TVET with particular reference to achieving inclusive growth and the greening of economies Underlying the increasing pressure for new models of TVET provision is the rapid pace of technological change demand for a work force which is highly responsive to evolving needs and a transforming market place that calls for higher order skills and lifelong learning The book proposes a re engineered modernized TVET system that fosters an innovative approach which enhances the employability of workers as well as the sustainability of their livelihoods The book includes contributions from leading policy makers researchers and practitioners including those in the private sector in analyzing and forecasting the most urgent priorities in skills development The book argues for creative approaches to TVET design and delivery particularly with a view to improve job prospects and meeting the goals of inclusion sustainable development and social cohesion Addressing issues such as the chronic mismatches between skills acquired and actual skills required in the work place the volume proposes diversified approaches towards workforce development and partnerships with the private sector to improve the quality and relevance of skills development The new imperatives created by greening economies and responses required in skills development and training are addressed Developing TVET is a high priority for governments in the Asia Pacific region as they seek to achieve long term sustainable growth since the continued success of their economic destinies depend on it The volume also includes an emerging framework for skills development for inclusive and sustainable growth in the Asia and Pacific region

OECD Territorial Reviews: The Gauteng City-Region, South Africa 2011 OECD, 2011-11-10 Against the backdrop of South Africa s achievements since the fall of apartheid this Review evaluates measures to position economic development policy and to confront economic inequality in the Johannesburg Pretoria region

China Review 2000 Chung-Ming Lau, Jianfa Shen, 2000 The showing of sophisticated modern weapons during the fiftieth anniversary of the Chinese Communist Party heralded China s emergence as a great power in the arena of politics At the same time China was finally admitted to the World Trade Organization after thirteen years negotiation With its two digit GNP annual growth rate China seemed poised to become the second largest economy in the world Many analysts argue that China will play an increasingly important role in the future whether in politics or economics China Review 2000 features a review of overall changes in the political economic social and business environments during the past twenty years of reform along with perspectives on major issues confronting the People s Republic in the new millennium
