Excerpt from Legends of Southern California My California There s a land that I know where the oranges grow And roses climb over my own bungalow The heliotrope curtains my windows with bloom And fills every corner with sweetest perfume The pepper trees sway with red berries gay And tall eucalyptus trees border the way The scent of the sage brush is keen in the air And poppies and lupins are seen everywhere There the soft balmy breeze has the tang of the seas And Nature is trying her hardest to please With desert and garden and mountain and shore Ah never were beauties so clustered before There s a land that I know where the oranges grow And roses climb over my own bungalow And there I wilt live in the glorious West In my dear California Land of the Blest About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
