It is a horse-drawn wagon, but through no one else than the government, they were often restricted to certain uses and some had to be used in certain ways. The City Wagon wagon was used as a messenger during wars, and as a messenger and messenger in the United States when the army and navy were out. The wagon was used to carry mail, news papers and other necessities to the front. There was a compartment for the driver and another for the passenger. For an extra fee, you could get the wagon painted and covered with the shell.
